HONORING TRADITION

THE PITT WAY

The Declaration of Commitment

When in the Course of human Events, it becomes necessary for one People to dissolve the differences that have separated us, and to assume the Powers of the Earth, the separate and unequal station to which they have chosen to belong, a decent respect to the teammates requires that they should declare the ways in which they will separate themselves from the common man.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all Men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these is the right to decide whether or not they will remain equal or if they will choose to live life in such a manner that they may reach their full potential and become, as an individual, a true Man among men and as a team, the embodiment of Champions.

This singular decision to remain equal and settle for nothing less than the best is in fact, not a singular decision but an assembly of many decisions. The guide that we as members of the Pitt family will employ when making any decision will be known as THE PITT WAY. Panther Football Team. WE WIN CHAMPIONSHIPS EVERYDAY! EXPECT TEN.

OBTAINING MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Credentials for Pitt home games are issued to working media only and should be requested as early as possible due to space limitations and demand. All credential requests should be made online at www.sportssystems.com/clients/pitt/.

Media organizations covering Pitt and the visiting school on a regular basis will receive top priority. All other credentials for print media will be issued on the basis of circulation. Only radio stations with a full-time sports director conducting a daily sports show or members of the Pitt IMG Sports Network will be considered for credentials.

GAME DAY MEDIA ENTRANCE

Press members must enter Heinz Field with their credentials through the designated entrance on the west side of the stadium, off Allegheny Avenue. The media entrance is just past Gate A, directly across from the Carnegie Science Center. After checking in with security, take the elevator up to the fourth floor for access to the press box.

GAME DAY MEDIA WILL CALL

Credentials that cannot be mailed may be obtained on game day at media will call, located at the media entrance on the west side of the stadium off Allegheny Avenue. Media will call opens two hours before kickoff. A photo ID must be shown to receive credentials.

GAME DAY TELEPHONES/WIRELESS SERVICE

The media relations office supplies an adequate number of telephones in the press box for general use by visiting writers. Personal phone lines at assigned seats can be ordered by contacting the media relations office and obtaining a phone line request form. Orders must be placed at least four days prior to game day. Wireless Internet service is available to media members in the Heinz Field press box.

PHOTOGRAPHY ROOM

There is a photo room easily accessible from the field for covering photographers. Enter the tunnel located closest to the Pitt sideline in the closed (north) end of the stadium.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

The postgame press conference for Pitt home games will be held in the media compound, located conveniently off the administrative offices lobby by the press box elevator. Coach Todd Graham and select Pitt players will attend the press conference. Pitt's locker room is closed to the media and the public. Opponent interviews will be held in a room connected to the visitor's locker room.

WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCE

Coach Graham will conduct his weekly press conferences Mondays, beginning at noon. The conferences will be held at the UPMC Sports Performance Complex. Transcripts, as well as audio/video archives of Coach Graham's press conferences, are available at www.PittsburghPanthers.com.

BIG EAST FOOTBALL TELECONFERENCE

Coach Graham will be available for interviews via a Big East Football Teleconference every Monday from 11:20 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. Contact the conference media relations office at (401) 453-0660 for the dial-in number.

PRACTICE COVERAGE

The initial 30 minutes of Pitt football practice, Tuesday through Thursday, are open to the media for observation. Photographers are also free to shoot practice during this time. The duration of the workout is closed. Media members should contact E.J. Borghetti or Mendy Nestor in advance for practice times and proper clearance. All practices will be held at the UPMC Sports Performance Complex.

WEEKLY INTERVIEWS

All interviews must be arranged through the media relations office at least 24 hours in advance. Please note the following interview opportunities:

COACH GRAHAM PRACTICE PRESS BRIEFINGS

Coach Graham will hold a press briefing after each practice on weekdays. Consult the media relations office for exact times.

PLAYER AND ASSISTANT COACH INTERVIEWS

Player and assistant coach interviews will be held after practice at a designated time. Consult the media relations office for a weekly schedule. The deadline for player interviews during game weeks is Thursday at noon. The media relations office will not release player telephone numbers.

The University of Pittsburgh and its multimedia rights holder IMG College provide the Panthers with thoroughly comprehensive radio coverage throughout the football season. Led by 50,000-watt flagship station Sportsradio 93.7 The Fan (KDKA-FM) in Pittsburgh, Pitt football games are broadcast on the Pitt IMG Sports Network, a loyal network of stations that spans the Commonwealth.

Radio coverage of Pitt football includes:

- A three-hour pregame show.
- "Panther Reaction," a call-in show following postgame coverage.
- A weekly "Todd Graham Show" airing live from the Pittsburgh Steak Company (1924 East Carson Street), on Mondays from 6 to 7 p.m. Coach Graham previews the upcoming game and takes questions from callers listening on many of the same Pitt IMG Sports Network affiliates that carry Panthers' game broadcasts.

Bill Hillgrove

The upcoming football season is a highly anticipated one with the debut of Todd Graham's new "high-octane" style at Pitt. Panthers fans not only have an exciting new style of play to watch on the field, they will also have a new broadcast tandem to call the action on radio.

Bill Hillgrove, the longtime "Voice of the Panthers," will be joined by former Pitt quarterback Pat Bostick in the booth to form the Panthers' new radio duo for the 2011 season.

Hillgrove will handle Pitt football play-by-play duties for the 38th consecutive year. His accurate and descriptive style truly paints the picture for Pitt fans listening to the network. Hillgrove has a long association with the Panthers and Pittsburgh sports scene. Prior to taking over as the play-by-play man for Pitt football, Hillgrove served as the Panthers' color analyst from 1970-73. He has also served as the play-by-play man for Pitt basketball broadcasts since 1969.

A popular and well-known Pittsburgh sports personality, Hillgrove has long been a Panther ambassador of good will. He is a 1962 graduate of Duquesne and has also been the Pittsburgh Steelers' play-by-play announcer since 1995. Hillgrove was named the 2007 recipient of the prestigious Chris Schenkel Award for excellence in college football broadcasting.

Calling all the Pitt football action this year will be Bill Hillgrove (right) and Pat Bostick.

Bostick was a three-year letterman for Pitt (2007-08, 2010) and quarterbacked the Panthers to such memorable victories as their 13-9 upset of West Virginia in 2007 and 36-33 quadruple-overtime win at Notre Dame in 2008. An honors graduate of the University of Pittsburgh, he earned his bachelor's degree in just three years and is currently pursuing his master's degree in Pitt's School of Education.

In addition to game day, Bostick will have a weekly guest segment on Sportsradio 93.7 The Fan to discuss all things Pitt football. He will also continue his work as a regular columnist for the Pitt website (PittsburghPanthers.com) and the official athletic department newspaper Panther Eyes.

The 2011 season marks the second for Pitt's partnership with CBS Radio Pittsburgh and its flagship, Sportsradio 93.7 The Fan. In addition to game broadcasts, the station airs a wide array of ancillary programming focusing on the Panthers' sports scene throughout the year.

In addition to Sportsradio 93.7 The Fan, CBS Radio Pittsburgh stations include NEWSRADIO 1020 KDKA-AM, WZPT-FM STAR 100.7 and WDSY-FM Y-108. CBS Radio, one of the largest major-market radio operators in the United States, is a division of CBS Corporation. CBS Radio operates 130 radio stations, the majority of which are in the nation's top 50 markets, including Pittsburgh, which is a top 25 market.

2011 PREVIEW

PITT

The 2011 season should be quite a transformation for Pitt football, which begins its first year under the leadership of new head coach Todd Graham.

Whereas past Pitt editions have been more conventional in their offensive and defensive schemes, the Graham Era promises a break from the traditional. The emphasis will be on, as Graham describes it, a "high-octane, high-energy approach" on both sides of the ball.

"We want to snap the ball every fifteen seconds on offense," Graham said. "Defensively we want to apply pressure on every down and make the momentum-changing plays that win football games."

Graham's head coaching tenure at Tulsa reflects the blueprint he looks to implement at Pitt. Behind a prolific offense and opportunistic defense, the Golden Hurricane posted double-digit wins in three of his four seasons. Twice they led the nation in total offense.

Graham's 2010 Tulsa team rolled up 505.6 yards per game to rank fifth nationally and averaged 41.4 points to rank sixth. The Golden Hurricane defense forced a whopping 36 turnovers, the third highest total in college football.

"We're a no-huddle football team," Graham said. "We're going to operate extremely fast on offense. We're going to be high tempo, high octane and explosive. Our goal is to be the most explosive team in the country."

"On defense we want to attack. Our approach to defense stems from our offseason training. We want to put fast and explosive players on the football field and make game-changing plays. Our main focus will be forcing turnovers and impacting the quarterback."

Pitt's regular-season schedule features eight teams that advanced to bowl games last year. The non-conference slate will be especially challenging with three BCS-caliber opponents in Iowa, Notre Dame and Utah. And this year's Big East race appears as wide open as ever.

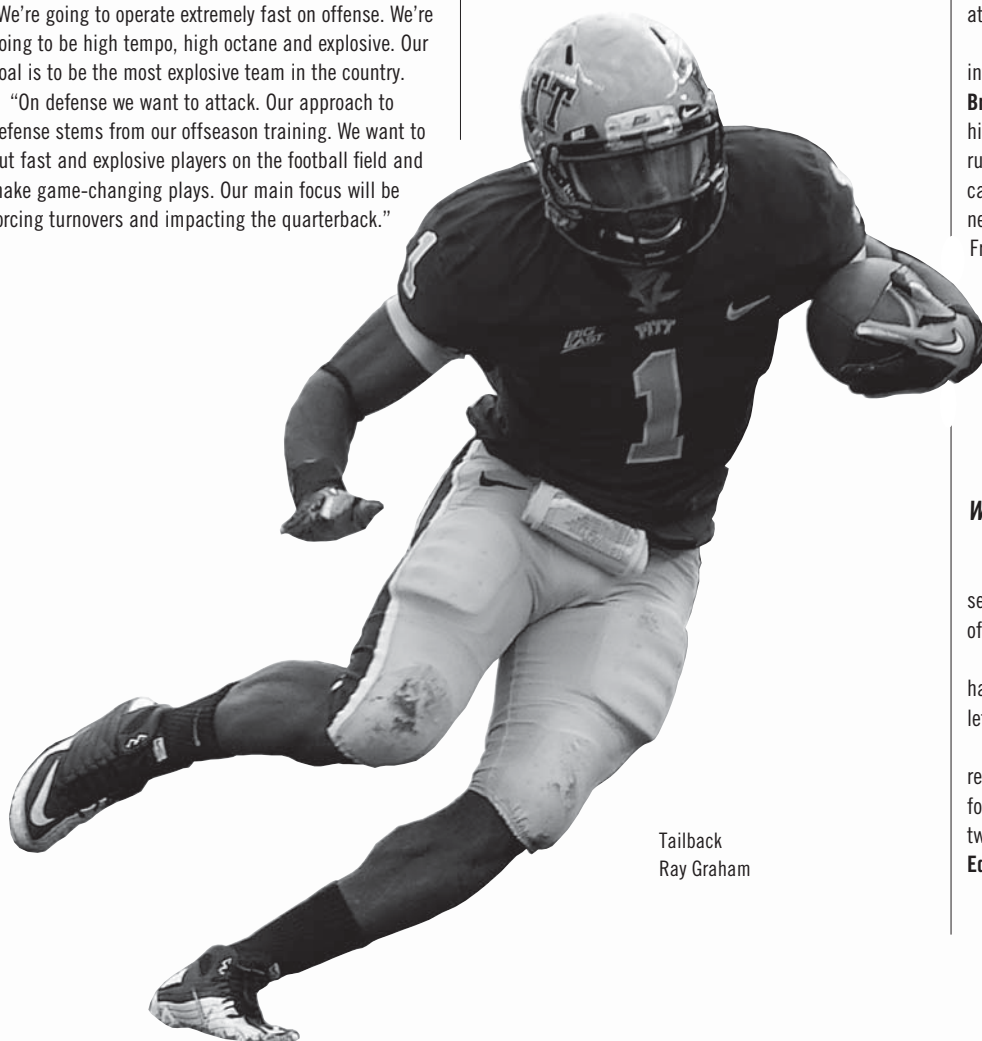

"The goal each year is to compete for and win the Big East Conference," Graham said. "We are excited about the opportunities and challenges this season will provide."

The following is a positional look at the 2011 Panthers.

QUARTERBACKS

Junior Tino Sunseri is the incumbent at quarterback, starting all 13 games a year ago. Sunseri connected on 65% of his passes (223 of 346) for 2,572 yards in his first season in a full-time role. He threw 16 touchdowns against nine interceptions while also showing the ability to make plays on his feet. In the Panthers' BBVA Compass Bowl victory over Kentucky, Sunseri rushed for 53 yards on just four carries (13.3 avg.).

Tailback
Ray Graham

The Panthers will have two quarterbacks entering their first active seasons following freshman redshirts. Mark Myers was a first-team All-Ohio selection as a senior at St. Ignatius after throwing for more than 2,100 yards and 20 touchdowns. Anthony Gonzalez was a standout at Pennsylvania's Liberty High, compiling 5,311 yards in total offense and 61 TDs over his final two seasons.

RUNNING BACKS

Pitt's backfield stable will need restocked with the departure of tailback Dion Lewis and fullback Henry Hynoski to the pro ranks. Junior Ray Graham could be the Panthers' next all-star performer at tailback. Graham rushed for 922 yards last year, averaging 6.2 yards on just 148 carries. Junior walk-on Desmond Brown received significant repetitions behind Graham during the spring and will look to compete for a primary reserve role.

Candidates for the vacated fullback spot include junior walk-on Kris Wildman, redshirt freshman walk-on Randy Morris and redshirt freshman Derrick Burns. The status of junior letterman Chris Mike for the 2011 season is in question due to a knee injury he sustained at the end of spring drills.

Adding to the running back competition will be an influx of promising newcomers. Fifth-year senior Zach Brown will be immediately eligible at Pitt after earning his degree from Wisconsin this past summer. Brown rushed for 1,152 yards and 11 touchdowns during his career with the Badgers. Malcolm Crockett rushed for nearly 2,000 yards over his final two seasons at Friendship Collegiate Academy in Washington D.C.

Corey Davis was an all-state performer who netted nearly 1,800 yards as a senior at Gladewater High in Texas. Despite an injury-limited senior year, Isaac Bennett led Booker T. Washington to the Oklahoma 5A title, averaging 9.6 yards a carry en route to nearly 1,400 yards.

WIDE RECEIVERS

Pitt will employ an array of three-receiver sets this season, maximizing the talents of a promising group of players.

While two-time All-Big East performer Jon Baldwin has departed for the NFL, the Panthers return four lettermen and some intriguing underclassmen.

Pitt will utilize sophomore Devin Street at the X receiver. Street played in every game last year, making four starts, and compiled 25 catches for 318 yards and two scores. He will be pushed by sophomore letterman Ed Tinker. Senior walk-on Todd Gilchrist will provide depth.

Wide Receiver
Mike Shanahan

At Y receiver, junior Mike Shanahan returns after posting career-best numbers in a starting role last year. Shanahan was the team's second-leading receiver behind Baldwin with 43 catches for 589 yards and one score. Salath Williams enters his first active season following a freshman redshirt and boasts excellent size and playmaking ability. Redshirt frosh walk-on Brett Zuck is also in the mix at Y.

Junior Cameron Saddler is the most experienced returnee at Z receiver, lettering the past two years as a top reserve. Redshirt frosh Kevin Weatherspoon enters his first active season looking to earn time in the receiver rotation. Sophomore walk-on Jake Delmonico will also look to earn reps at Z.

Four newcomers will try to impact the receiver depth chart upon their arrival for preseason training camp. Joshua Brinson was one of the top wideouts in the California JUCO ranks and could be ready to make immediate contributions. Big and rangy target Justin Jackson starred at Alabama 6A champion Daphne High. While he will play receiver at Pitt, Ronald Jones was actually an all-state quarterback at Florida's Fort Meade. Darius Patton was one of Ohio's top receiver prospects at Poland, twice earning all-state.

TIGHT ENDS & H-BACK

Sophomore Brock DeCicco and redshirt freshman Brendan Carozzoni will be the chief competitors for the starting tight end assignment. DeCicco, who lettered as a redshirt frosh last year, had only two receptions but both went for touchdowns (totaling 19 yards).

Junior Hubie Graham could be a newcomer of impact at H-Back. Graham enters his first active season following his transfer from Illinois. He will compete with redshirt freshman Drew Carswell, who is transitioning from wide receiver.

Pitt will welcome freshmen Sam Collura and Steve Williams for training camp. One of Maryland's top tight end prospects, Collura averaged more than 20 yards per reception as a senior for perennial power DeMatha Catholic. Williams, who projects as an H-Back, rushed for nearly 2,400 yards his final two seasons at Calvary Day School in Georgia.

OFFENSIVE LINE

Pitt returns four players with starting experience on the offensive front.

Forming the unit's nucleus are three battle-tested seniors in Chris Jacobson, Jordan Gibbs and Lucas Nix. The trio owns a combined 49 career starts.

Jacobson, a starter at left guard last year, will move to center in 2011. Given the heavy utilization of the shotgun formation in Todd Graham's offense, Jacobson's successful positional switch was one of the most important developments of the spring.

Nix, the most experienced of Pitt's offensive linemen with 25 career starting assignments, will man the right tackle spot. Gibbs will start at left tackle.

The leading candidates for the starting offensive guard positions are senior Greg Gaskins, a part-time starter last year, and sophomore Cory King. Depth and competition at guard will come from junior Ryan Turnley (who could also get a look at center), sophomore Ryan Schlieper, and a trio of redshirt freshmen in Matt Rotheram, Shane Johnson and Arthur Doakes.

Also vying for time at tackle will be sophomore Juantez Hollins, junior Justin Virbitsky and mid-year junior-college transfer Zenel Demhasaj.

Depth at center will come from Turnley and incoming freshman Artie Rowell, an all-state performer at Pennsylvania's Central Dauphin.

THE DEFENSE

DEFENSIVE LINE

Pitt returns an experienced foundation on its defensive line despite the departure of two national-caliber ends in Greg Romeus and Jabaal Sheard to the NFL.

A pair of seniors, Chas Alecxih and Myles Caragein, returns on the interior. As a starting defensive tackle last year, Alecxih collected 57 stops, including nine TFLs, and thrived as a pass rusher with 7.5 sacks. Caragein, the Panthers' starting nose tackle, had 30 tackles, 4.5 TFLs and two sacks.

Sophomore lettermen Aaron Donald and Tyrone Ezell will provide strong competition at tackle. Also fortifying this position is sophomore Jack Lippert, who moved back to defense after serving as the chief reserve at center last year. Pushing for time at the nose will be freshman Khaynin Mosley-Smith, who enrolled in January following a prep season at Milford (N.Y.) Academy.

At defensive end, Pitt boasts one of the country's most productive defenders in senior Brandon Lindsey, who began last year as a reserve but ended the season as an All-Big East performer. Lindsey collected 51 tackles and led the team with 17.5 TFLs and 10 sacks. Strong and experienced depth will come from senior Justin Hargrove and sophomore T.J. Clemmings.

LINEBACKERS

Pitt's new 3-4 scheme will employ a "Panther" — a hybrid position that plays to the boundary and blends the skills of a defensive end and linebacker. Senior Greg Williams brings experience and playmaking athleticism to the Panther. Williams collected 64 tackles and 5.5 TFLs last year. He will be pushed by sophomore Bryan Murphy, who lettered as a true frosh last season, and junior Shayne Hale. Redshirt freshman walk-on Mark Giubilato is also in the mix at Panther.

The "spur" plays opposite the Panther and is a combination linebacker and safety. Heading into training camp, top candidates to seize this starting role are sophomore letterman Kevin Adams and redshirt freshman Eric Williams. Quality competition will come from sophomore Carl Fleming and promising redshirt frosh Todd Thomas.

At Sam linebacker, senior Tristan Roberts and sophomore Shane Gordon will be the most experienced candidates for the starting nod. Roberts, who could also see time at the Will, played in every game a year ago with eight starts and had 40 tackles and 4.5 TFLs. Gordon lettered as a redshirt frosh, playing in all 13 games and making one start. Providing depth at the Sam will be junior Manny Williams and redshirt frosh walk-on Adam Lazenga.

Senior Max Gruder boasts experience at all three linebacker spots but is slated to play the Will this year. As Pitt's starting middle linebacker, Gruder finished second on the team with 84 stops last year. Another player with diverse experience, junior letterman Joe Trebitz, will provide depth. Also vying for time will be sophomore walk-on Emanuel Rackard, who lettered last year.

The Panthers welcome four freshman linebackers for training camp. Devin Cook (Beaver Falls [Pa.]), Nicholas Grigsby (Trotwood-Madison [Ohio]), Juan Price (Woodland Hills [Pa.]) and LaQuentin Smith (Dr. Phillips [Fla.]) each had highly decorated prep careers and figure to provide immediate depth and competition upon arriving.

Cornerback

SECONDARY

Five lettermen return at the cornerback spots. At boundary corner, sophomore K'Waun Williams appears ready for a prominent role after earning significant playing time as a true frosh. Vying for time behind Williams will be senior letterman Saheed Imoru and redshirt freshman walk-on Joseph Lopez.

One of Pitt's most strongly contested positional battles will be at field cornerback where seniors Antwan Reed and Buddy Jackson return. Reed started 12 games a year ago and had 40 tackles, six pass breakups and an interception. Jackson, a three-year letterman, had an impressive spring and appears ready to make the biggest contributions of his career. Also in the mix at field corner is junior walk-on Jeremiah Davis.

At free safety, junior Jarred Holley returns after earning All-Big East last season. Holley had 54 tackles and tied for the team lead with five interceptions. He could be ready to earn national accolades this year. Pitt boasts experienced depth at the free with junior Andrew Taglianetti. An accomplished special teams ace with five blocked kicks, Taglianetti also boasts starting experience in the secondary. Junior walk-on Marco Pecora, who lettered the past two years on special teams, will also vie for time at the free.

Sophomore Jason Hendricks will be eyeing the starting job at bandit safety. Hendricks made five starts as a redshirt frosh and collected 42 tackles on the year. He will be pushed by speedy redshirt freshman Brandon Ifill. Also vying for reps at bandit will be redshirt frosh walk-on Phil Peckich.

The Panthers will infuse four freshmen into the secondary this year. Prospects at cornerback include Lafayette Pitts, a decorated player from nearby Woodland Hills, and Texas import Lloyd Carrington (Lincoln H.S.). Competing for time at the safety positions will be Jason Frimpong (MacArthur [Texas]) and Roderick Ryles (Dr. Phillips [Fla.]).

Free Safety
Jarred Holley

THE SPECIALISTS

Pitt will need to replace Dan Hutchins, its starting placekicker and punter the past two years.

Ready to take over placements is junior Kevin Harper, who lettered the past two seasons handling kickoffs and serving as Pitt's long-range field goal specialist. Also competing at placekicker will be senior walk-ons Garrett Tonio and Chris Yankoski.

At punter, sophomore walk-on Matt Yoklic heads into training camp as the leading candidate to seize the starting job. He will be pressed by Yankoski and redshirt frosh walk-on Drake Greer (who also could earn reps at kicker).

Vying for the long snapping duties will be sophomore Kevin Barthelemy and junior Marco Pecora.

The return game bursts with speed and potential. Senior Buddy Jackson and sophomore Devin Street will compete at kick returner. Jackson showed particular promise during the spring, returning two kicks for touchdowns in scrimmage situations.

Junior Cameron Saddler led the team in punt returns and ranked third in the Big East with a 10.5 average (25 returns for 263 yards) last year. Junior Jarred Holley was Saddler's backup in this role and could earn increased opportunities this year.

TO BE FAST

WE WANT TO BE EFFICIENT AND
WE ARE GOING TO BE EXPLOSIVE.
I WANT PEOPLE WHO COME TO
HEINZ FIELD TO NOT SIT DOWN IN THEIR SEATS. THAT'S THE TYPE OF FOOTBALL WE'RE GOING TO PLAY.

– TODD GRAHAM

On the evening of January 15, 2011, a Pitt football pep rally broke out in the most unlikely of places – at a basketball game.

With the Panthers' hoops team cruising to another big victory in the Petersen Events Center, Pitt's newly minted head football coach, Todd Graham, took the microphone at halftime.

"One of the things I can guarantee you is we will be blue-collar, hard-nosed and physical," Graham told the spirited crowd. "We are going to restore the Beast from the East!"

"We will work to bring Big East championships, BCS bowl championships and the 10th national championship to Pitt!"

Graham closed by announcing he had just made his "first official purchase in Pittsburgh." He unzipped his leather jacket to reveal an "Oakland Zoo" T-shirt, the official uniform of Pitt's raucous student section.

As he switched the microphone off, chants of "Let's Go Pitt!" erupted. In just three minutes time, Graham had Panthers fans ready for a basketball-football doubleheader that night.

It was an early sampling of the adrenaline Graham brings to his new job. Leading up to his first season on the Pitt sideline, Graham went on a summer barnstorming tour of booster and alumni functions around the tri-state area and beyond. His passion and energy – not to mention his mantra of "high-octane football" – has the Panther Nation dreaming big about the future.

"Pittsburgh is a tremendous football city with great fans," Graham said. "We will work diligently every day to earn their respect and build a program that competes for and wins championships."

Graham was officially named Pitt's 35th head football coach by Athletic Director Steve Pederson on January 10. His appointment came after a highly successful head coaching tenure at Tulsa, where in four years he had three 10-win campaigns and an undefeated bowl record (3-0).

This is Graham's third collegiate head coaching post. In addition to Tulsa, he served as the head coach at Rice for one season (2006), leading the Owls to their first bowl game in 45 years and earning Conference USA Coach of the Year honors. Graham's career head coaching record is 43-23 and includes four bowls in five seasons.

"Coach Graham's innovative, creative and energized approach to football makes him an exciting leader for our program," Pederson said. "He has a proven track record of success at all levels of football and his wealth of experience on both sides of the ball gives him a unique set of credentials. The outstanding job he has done at Tulsa – double-digit win totals in three of the past four seasons and an undefeated bowl record – has been noticed across the country."

"Todd is creative, energetic and wants to win championships while doing things the right way on and off the field. We're excited about the future of our program under his direction."

"WE WILL WORK TO BRING
BIG EAST CHAMPIONSHIPS,
BCS BOWL CHAMPIONSHIPS
AND THE 10TH NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP TO PITT!"

Graham compiled a 36-17 overall mark at Tulsa, including teams that achieved records of 10-4, 11-3 and 10-3. His final year with the Golden Hurricane in 2010 was highlighted by a 28-27 victory at Notre Dame and 62-35 demolition of 24th-ranked Hawai'i in the Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl.

The Notre Dame triumph has been called the biggest win in Tulsa's 115-year history. ESPN's Kirk Herbstreit called it the biggest upset of the 2010 college football season and honored Graham with a "Herbie Award."

One educated observer of Graham's Tulsa tenure was College Football Hall of Famer John Cooper, who formerly coached the Golden Hurricane as well as Ohio State and Arizona State. "I don't think I can say enough good things about Todd Graham," Cooper said. He described Graham and his staff as being "on the cutting edge of what is going on in college football these days."

Said former Tulsa star wide receiver Brennan Marion, "Pitt football fans are in for the time of their lives. Coach Graham's teams will wow everyone in Pittsburgh. When he talks about speed, you can't fully appreciate it until you see it. It's amazing how quickly his teams move. I would describe it as non-stop action."

Others across the country agree. CBSSports.com senior writer Dennis Dodd called Graham's Pitt appointment one of the two best college football hires of the year. Richard Cirminiello of CollegeFootballNews.com wrote "He's definitely a 21st century coach, inventive and attacking on both sides of the ball. However, he also operates with a no-nonsense work ethic that fans and recruits in this area of the country will respect and appreciate."

Graham emphasizes having a "21st century program run on old school values." He encourages dreaming big but working harder.

Wherever the Panthers' nine national titles are showcased in the Pitt football facility, Graham has made it a point to add the verbiage "Expect 10." Also prominent in the locker room is a large sign that details "The Pitt Way" – the guiding values and mission of Pitt's football program – that is signed by every player and coach.

"Our philosophy is that we win championships every day by what we do, how we act, the words we speak and the standards we hold ourselves to," Graham said. "We are committed to being the hardest-working, most-disciplined, best-prepared team in the nation. We will strive to win every day on and off the field. That's 'The Pitt Way' and it is non-negotiable."

On the field, prolific offenses have been Graham's hallmark. Under his direction, Tulsa led the nation in total offense twice (2007 and 2008) and ranked fifth in 2010. While he has a well-deserved reputation for devising explosive offensive game plans, the 46-year-old coach built his career as a distinguished defensive coordinator and position coach.

Graham's 2010 Tulsa team rolled up 505.6 yards per game to rank fifth nationally and averaged 41.4 points to rank sixth. Defensively, the Golden Hurricane led the country in interceptions (24) and ranked third in turnovers gained (36).

Graham has coached some of college football's most exciting and explosive players. Last year, Tulsa's Damaris Johnson rose to All-America status after leading the country in all-purpose yards for the second consecutive year (202.2 yards/game in 2010). Johnson enters his senior season in 2011 already holding the NCAA career record for all-purpose yards with 7,796.

In Graham's first two seasons as Tulsa's head coach, the Golden Hurricane made program history by posting consecutive 10-win seasons and winning a school-record 11 games in 2008. He went 21-7 his first two years, the best start by a Tulsa coach ever. Tulsa was one of just 11 schools on the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) level to achieve back-to-back 10-win seasons in 2007 and 2008.

In 2007, Tulsa led the country in total offense, averaging 543.9 yards per game, and set 29 school records, 15 Conference USA marks and four NCAA records. The Golden Hurricane routed Bowling Green, 63-7, in the GMAC Bowl, the largest bowl margin of victory in NCAA history.

In 2008, Tulsa again led the country in total offense (569.9 yards/game) while ranking second in scoring (47.2 points/game), fifth in rushing (268.0 yards/game) and ninth in passing (301.9 yards/game). Graham's team finished with an 11-3 record, capped by a 45-13 victory over 22nd-ranked Ball State in the GMAC Bowl.

Tulsa's 661 points in 2008 established a school record and marked the second highest single-season total in the modern era of the NCAA (second only to Oklahoma's 2008 total of 716 points).

Before elevating to head coach at Tulsa, Graham served as its assistant head coach and defensive coordinator from 2003-05. The 2005 team finished with a 9-4 record, captured the Conference USA title and shut down a high-flying Fresno State team, 31-24, in the Liberty Bowl. Graham's defense ranked among the nation's top 40 in five categories, including takeaways (third), interceptions (third), pass efficiency defense (11th), pass defense (17th) and total defense (40th).

Taking over as head coach at Rice in 2006, Graham led the Owls to a 7-6 record and the school's first bowl berth in 45 years. That historic success earned him Conference USA Coach of the Year honors. Rice began the year 0-4 before reeling off victories in seven of its next nine games, including six consecutive wins.

Graham broke into the collegiate coaching ranks as defensive coordinator at East Central University (1991-93) in Oklahoma, where his work helped transform his alma mater from a .500 program to NAIA national champions in his final year.

During the 2001 and 2002 seasons, Graham served at West Virginia under Rich Rodriguez and helped the Mountaineers achieve the biggest turnaround in college football over that period, improving from 3-8 to 9-4.

After coaching WVU's linebackers his first season, Graham was promoted to co-defensive coordinator, defensive scheme coordinator and safeties coach. The 2002 Mountaineers forced 34 turnovers, including 19 interceptions, and ranked fourth nationally in turnover margin (plus 19).

From 1995-2000, Graham distinguished himself in the ultra-competitive Texas high school ranks as both a head coach and athletic director. As head coach at Allen High School, he led a program that had no district wins the year prior to his arrival to five playoff berths in six seasons. His final year, Allen posted a 9-3 record and captured the 5A Division II bi-district title while defeating four teams ranked among the top 10 in the state of Texas.

A native of the Dallas-Fort Worth area, Graham was an all-state defensive back at North Mesquite High School. He went on to play at East Central University, where he was a two-time NAIA All-America defensive back and three-time all-conference performer.

Graham earned his bachelor's degree in education in 1987 from ECU, becoming the first person in his family to graduate from college. Graham later earned his master's degree, also in education, from ECU.

He signed a free-agent contract with the NFL's St. Louis Cardinals in '87 before embarking on his coaching career.

Graham and his wife Penni have six children: Bo, Natalie, Hank, Haylee, Dakota and Michael Todd Jr.

2010	Hawai'i Bowl (Tulsa)

PAUL RANDOLPH serves as Pitt's executive associate head coach, co-defensive coordinator and defensive line coach.

Randolph's Pitt appointment continues his successful association with Todd Graham. Randolph served under the Panthers' new head coach the past five seasons in similar capacities at Tulsa and Rice.

Randolph spent the past four years at Tulsa (2007-10), playing an instrumental role in the Golden Hurricane's emergence as a perennial bowl team. Tulsa won 36 games during that time, including three bowl victories. He helped mold a defense that led the country in interceptions in 2010 (24) and ranked third in turnovers forced (36).

In 2006, Randolph served under Graham as assistant head coach, defensive coordinator and linebacker coach at Rice. His efforts helped produce one of the most impressive revitalizations in recent college football history. The Owls earned their first bowl berth in 45 years after a 7-5 regular season that included victories in six of their final seven games.

Prior to Rice, Randolph was the defensive ends coach at Alabama (2003-05), where he helped the Crimson Tide boast one of the nation's toughest defenses. In 2005, Alabama led the country in scoring defense (10.7 points/game) while ranking second in total defense (255.1 yards/game), fifth in pass defense (160.8 yards/game) and ninth in rushing defense (94.3 yards/game).

His All-Southeastern Conference performers at Alabama included Antwan Odom, a seventh-year NFL veteran with the Cincinnati Bengals, and Mark Anderson, who completed his fifth professional season with the Houston Texans.

Randolph also distinguished himself on the recruiting trail during his time in Tuscaloosa and was named one of the country's top 25 recruiters by Rivals.

He is not unfamiliar with Big East circles having coached the defensive line at West Virginia in 2002. His other collegiate coaching stops include Toledo, Illinois State, Valdosta State and his alma mater Tennessee-Martin.

An all-conference linebacker at Tennessee-Martin, Randolph went on to a decorated professional playing career in the Canadian Football League. He played eight seasons with Winnipeg (1988-95) and then served two years as a team captain and player-coach with the Montreal Alouettes (1996-97). Randolph helped Winnipeg to Grey Cup championships in 1988 and '90 before receiving induction into the Blue Bombers' Hall of Fame in 2002.

Randolph earned his bachelor's degree in electrical engineering technology from Tennessee-Martin in 1990. He and his wife Mia have two children, son Patrick and daughter Mya.

The Randolph Family, clockwise from top: daughter Mya, wife Mia and Paul.

CALVIN MAGEE, who has worked with some of college football's most explosive offensive performers over the past decade, enters his first season as Pitt's assistant head coach, co-offensive coordinator and running backs coach.

Magee comes to Pittsburgh after spending the past three years as associate head coach and offensive coordinator at Michigan. The 2010 Wolverines featured one of the nation's most dynamic offensive talents in quarterback Denard Robinson, who ranked second nationally in total offense (328.62 yards/game) and was named the Big Ten Offensive Player of the Year.

Robinson finished sixth in the Heisman Trophy balloting last year and became the first player in NCAA history to throw for 2,000 yards and rush for 1,500 in a single season. He finished with 2,570 passing yards and set an NCAA single-season record for rushing yards by a quarterback with 1,702.

As a unit, Michigan led the Big Ten and ranked eighth nationally in total offense with an average of 488.69 yards per game.

Prior to Michigan, Magee spent seven seasons as the running backs coach at West Virginia (2001-07), where he produced an All-Big East performer each year of his tenure. He added offensive coordinator duties his final three seasons and was named assistant head coach in 2007.

Magee's first-team All-Big East running backs included Steve Slaton, Quincy Wilson and Avon Cobourne, the Mountaineers' all-time leading rusher with 5,164 yards.

Slaton, now an NFL standout with the Houston Texans, was a 2006 first team All-American and finalist for the Doak Walker Award, annually presented to the country's top running back. His 1,744 rushing yards in '06 set a West Virginia record.

The Mountaineers won or shared four Big East titles during Magee's time in Morgantown and captured BCS bowl victories following the 2005 (Sugar Bowl) and 2007 (Fiesta Bowl) seasons.

Prior to West Virginia, Magee spent five seasons at South Florida (1996-2000) and was a member of USF's inaugural staff in '96. He coached the Bulls' tight ends his first season before shifting his positional focus to running backs his final four years. Magee was USF's run game coordinator in 1999 and 2000.

Magee broke into the coaching ranks after playing professionally in the National Football League. He was a four-year starter at tight end for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1985-88) and finished his career with the Houston Oilers in 1989. Magee led the Bucs in receptions (45), receiving yards (564) and receiving touchdowns (5) during the 1986 season and was a Pro Bowl alternate in 1987.

Magee is one of the greatest players in Southern University history. He was a three-time All-America tight end, earning first-team honors in 1983 and 1984. Magee led the Jaguars in receptions each of his four seasons (1981-84) and was the Most Valuable Player of the 1985 Freedom Bowl. In 2000 he was inducted into the Southern University Hall of Fame.

Magee and his wife Rosie have two daughters, Jade and Jasmine, and one son, Bryson. Magee earned his bachelor's degree from USF in 1990.

Mike and Maria Norvell.

A key figure in Todd Graham's high-octane offensive attack at Tulsa, MIKE NORVELL begins his first season at Pitt, where he will serve as co-offensive coordinator, wide receivers coach and director of recruiting.

Norvell continues his association with Graham after working on his Tulsa staff the past four years, including the 2010 season when he served as passing game coordinator, receivers coach and director of recruiting.

The Golden Hurricane had five 1,000-yard receivers during Norvell's tenure. His most accomplished pupil was All-America receiver Damaris Johnson, who led the country in all-purpose yards for two consecutive years and set the all-time NCAA FBS record for that category with 7,796 career yards.

Johnson averaged 202.2 all-purpose yards per game in 2010. In Tulsa's 62-35 win over Hawai'i in the Sheraton

Hawai'i Bowl, he averaged an incredible 21.73 yards per touch en route to 326 all-purpose yards.

In 2008, Norvell's receivers were a vital part of college football's most prolific offense. Tulsa averaged an astounding 569.9 yards per game that season to lead the country. The Golden Hurricane ranked second nationally in scoring (47.1 points/game) and ninth in passing yards (301.8 yards/game).

Tulsa also topped the country in total offense in 2007 (543.9 yards/game) and set 29 school records, 15 Conference USA marks and four NCAA records. The '07 Golden Hurricane became the first team in NCAA history to have a 5,000-yard passer, a 1,000-yard rusher and three 1,000-yard receivers in a single season.

Prior to Tulsa, Norvell was an offensive graduate assistant at his alma mater, Central Arkansas. In addition to coaching receivers and H-Backs, he was a significant contributor to UCA's special teams.

Norvell was accomplished on the field and in the classroom at Central Arkansas. A four-year starter at receiver, he finished his career as the school's all-time leader in receptions (213) and ranked third in receiving yards (2,611). Norvell earned All-Gulf South honors and was the conference's 2001 Freshman of the Year. He also was a two-time first-team Gulf South All-Academic honoree.

Norvell earned his bachelor's degree of education in social studies in 2005 and a master's degree in training systems in 2007, both from UCA. His wife's name is Maria.

KEITH PATTERSON enters his first season as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Pitt.

Patterson spent the past eight seasons at Tulsa, where he made invaluable contributions to the Golden Hurricane's impressive rise. He was part of six bowl teams at Tulsa and coached 10 players who earned All-Conference USA.

In addition to coaching the linebackers, Patterson served as co-defensive coordinator his final five seasons at Tulsa. In 2010, he helped mold a defense that led the country in interceptions (24) and ranked third in turnovers gained (36).

Facing the nation's top passing offense in Hawai'i last Christmas Eve in the Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl, Tulsa's defense forced five interceptions and six total turnovers en route to a victory over the No. 24 Rainbows. The win was the Golden Hurricane's 36th over a four-year span and marked the program's third consecutive bowl triumph.

Patterson tutored some of the most productive and accomplished defenders in Tulsa football history. His star pupils include first-team All-Conference USA performers Nick Bunting, Chris Chamberlain and Nelson Coleman. The three rank among the top 10 tacklers in school history, a list topped by Coleman who had an impressive 413 career stops.

Bunting finished his career as one of the most decorated linebackers ever at Tulsa. He was named the Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year in 2006 and the Western Athletic Conference (WAC) Newcomer of the Year in 2003. Chamberlain, who finished fifth in Tulsa history with 352 tackles, was drafted by St. Louis in 2008 and has spent the past three seasons with the Rams.

Patterson joined Tulsa after building an impressive resume as a high school coach in Oklahoma and Texas. As head coach at Ardmore (Okla.) High, he led his team to the 1999 District 5A-1 championship and was named district coach of the year. He also worked under Todd Graham at Allen High in Texas, building that program into a perennial power.

Patterson earned his bachelor's degree in health, physical education and recreation from East Central (Okla.) University in 1986. He was a four-year letterman at defensive back for ECU and later served his alma mater as a graduate assistant coach. Patterson earned his master's degree in kinesiology and sport studies in 2003 from Texas A&M University-Commerce.

Patterson's wife's name is Melissa. He has two daughters, Fallon and Erin; a stepdaughter, Bretlie; and a stepson, Kelby.

TONY GIBSON enters his first season as secondary coach and pass defense coordinator at Pitt.

While he is new to Pittsburgh, Gibson is very familiar with Western Pennsylvania recruiting circles and the Big East Conference. He actively recruited the region while on the staffs at Michigan (2008-10) and Big East member West Virginia (2001-07) over the past decade.

Gibson served as the assistant head coach and defensive backs coach at Michigan the past three years. He added special teams coordinator to his duties in 2010. During his time in Ann Arbor he oversaw the development of first-team All-Big Ten cornerback Donovan Warren.

As defensive backs coach at West Virginia, Gibson produced eight All-Big East performers and had six of his players selected in the NFL Draft. His secondary standouts at WVU included first team All-American Adam Jones, who played with the Cincinnati Bengals this past season.

The Mountaineers won or shared four Big East titles during Gibson's time in Morgantown, capturing BCS bowl victories following the 2005 (Sugar Bowl) and 2007 (Fiesta Bowl) seasons. In addition to coaching defensive backs, he also coordinated West Virginia's recruiting efforts in 2007.

Gibson himself played defensive back at Glenville State, where under coach Rich Rodriguez he helped the team claim two West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (WVIAC) championships. He would go on to serve on Rodriguez's staffs at Glenville, WVU and Michigan.

After earning his bachelor's degree from Glenville State in 1994, Gibson was the head coach and interim athletic director at Gilmer County (W.Va.) High School. He then joined Rodriguez's staff at Glenville State as the defensive backs coach and also worked with the kickoff teams for the 1996 season.

In 1997 and '98, Gibson worked at Cumberland (Tenn.) University, coordinating the program's special teams and recruitment in addition to mentoring the team's defensive backs. His career then carried him to West Virginia Tech, where he spent two seasons as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator (1999-2000).

Gibson and his wife Kerry have two children, son Cody and daughter Ashton.

TONY DEWS enters his first season as tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator at Pitt.

Dews spent the past three seasons at Michigan, where he coached the wide receivers. His 2010 receiving corps helped Michigan lead the Big Ten and rank eighth nationally in total offense with an average of 488.69 yards per game. The Wolverines' pass offense ranked second in the Big Ten, averaging 250.15 yards through the air.

Under Dews' guidance, Michigan receiver Roy Roundtree was an All-Big Ten selection by the media after he had 72 receptions for 935 yards and seven touchdowns.

Dews' Pitt appointment marks his return to the Big East. He coached the receivers at West Virginia in 2007, including All-Big East performer Darius Reynaud. Dews additionally served a graduate assistantship with the Mountaineers from 1999-2001, working with the offensive line and secondary.

Dews boasts experience in all three phases of the game. In 2006 he was the associate special teams coordinator and linebackers coach at UNLV. Dews was the tight ends coach at Central Michigan from 2004-05 and served as the Chippewas' special teams coordinator his final year. He additionally coached the defensive line at Holy Cross in 2003.

Dews' other collegiate coaching stops include stints at California University of Pa. (2002) and Millersville (1998).

A native of Lynchburg, Va., Dews is a 1996 graduate of Liberty University, where he was an All-Virginia tight end and was the Flames' leading pass catcher his junior and senior seasons.

He earned his bachelor's degree in psychology from Liberty and his master's degree in athletic coaching education from West Virginia in 2001.

Dews and his wife Tamika have four daughters: Savannah, Sierra, Sydney and Sienna.

A renowned teacher of quarterback play with an impressive list of star pupils, TODD DODGE enters his first season as quarterbacks coach at Pitt.

Dodge comes to Pittsburgh after a four-year tenure as head coach at the University of North Texas. Prior to UNT, he established himself as one of the country's most accomplished high school coaches, producing state championship teams and blue chip prospects at an impressive rate.

Hailed as a Texas "high school coaching legend" by The Dallas Morning News, Dodge led Southlake Carroll High to four Texas Class 5A state championships in his final five seasons and a 79-1 record during that span.

In seven total seasons at Southlake Carroll (2000-06), Dodge went 98-11 and closed his tenure by winning 48 consecutive games. The Dragons were recognized as national champions three times — twice by USA Today (2004 and 2006) and once by PrepNation.com (2005). Dodge also drew individual accolades on a national scale. He was named the National High School Coach of the Year by Schutt Sports in 2004 and USA Today in 2005.

Dodge shaped no fewer than six winners of the Texas 5A Player of the Year award. His quarterback protégées included former Missouri star Chase Daniel, now of the New Orleans Saints, and Alabama's Greg McElroy, who led the Crimson Tide to the 2009 national title.

Overall, Dodge coached 22 players who went on to earn athletic scholarships at the NCAA Division I level.

Dodge is a former starting quarterback for the Texas Longhorns. Playing under UT coach Fred Akers from 1982-85, he threw for 2,791 yards and 18 touchdowns during his career. His average of 32.6 yards per completion against Rice in 1985 (11 completions for 359 yards) remains a school record. Dodge threw a 96-yard touchdown pass in that game, which stands as the second-longest play (tied) in Texas history.

Following his 1987 graduation from UT, Dodge embarked on his coaching career, serving as an offensive coordinator on the high school level in Texas. After a two-year stint on the offensive staff at the University of North Texas (1992-93), Dodge secured his first head coaching appointment at Cameron's C.H. Yoe High School in 1994. Many observers of Texas high school football readily credit Dodge for revolutionizing the way offensive football is played in the Lone Star State.

Dodge and his wife Elizabeth have two children, son Riley and daughter Molly. Riley was a two-time Texas 5A Player of the Year and now is a quarterback at McNeese State.

A veteran of more than 20 collegiate seasons coaching offensive lines, SPENCER LEFTWICH begins his first year at Pitt.

Leftwich comes to Pittsburgh after spending the 2010 season on Todd Graham's staff at Tulsa, where his offensive line helped the Golden Hurricane rank fifth nationally in total offense (505.62 yards/game).

The offensive front played a vital role in Tulsa's 10-3 campaign, capped by a 62-35 win over 24th-ranked Hawai'i in the Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl. The Golden Hurricane had a 3,600-yard passer and averaged more than 216 rushing yards per game.

The 2010 season marked Leftwich's second appointment at Tulsa as he previously coached its offensive line from 2003-06. During his initial stint, the Golden Hurricane advanced to three bowl games and claimed the 2005 Conference USA championship. In total, he produced eight all-conference performers in his five seasons at Tulsa.

From 2007-09 Leftwich worked at the University of North Texas, where he dramatically upgraded the performance of the Mean Green's offensive line.

The progress was most evident in UNT's protection of the passer. After ranking 110th nationally in sacks allowed in his first season, the Mean Green elevated to 10th nationally his final year, allowing just a single sack per game. That equated to one sack every 14 pass attempts in 2007 to a sack every 34 pass attempts in 2009.

That 2009 unit was also pivotal in the running game, opening holes for a rushing attack that produced 2,223 yards (185.3 yards/game) to rank 28th nationally. North Texas set a school record with 4,904 yards in total offense in '09.

Before joining Tulsa in 2003, Leftwich had his first coaching stint at North Texas from 1994-2002. He had at least one UNT lineman earn all-conference honors in eight of his nine years.

Leftwich's other coaching stops include offensive line posts at New Mexico State (1992-93) and Stephen F. Austin (1989-91), his alma mater. SFA advanced to the NCAA Division I-AA championship game in 1989 and finished with a 12-2-1 record.

A 1988 graduate of Stephen F. Austin with a bachelor's degree in education, Leftwich was a three-year starter at offensive guard for the Lumberjacks and twice earned all-conference. He also owns a master's degree in physical education from East Texas State (1989).

Leftwich and his wife LaTonne have three sons: Mack Hays, Cutter and Gage.

Conference Defensive Player of the Year in end Jamari Lattimore.

At Wisconsin, McCray coached the defensive line (2006-07), outside linebackers (2008) and safeties (2009). He was the Badgers' recruiting coordinator his final two seasons in Madison.

Wisconsin went 38-14 during McCray's tenure, advancing to four consecutive bowl games. The 2006 Badgers featured one of the country's elite defenses en route to a 12-1 record and No. 5 ranking in the final USA Today coaches poll. Wisconsin limited opponents to just 12.1 points (second best nationally) and 253.1 yards (fifth best) per game that year.

Five of McCray's Wisconsin players were on NFL rosters last season, including All-Big Ten defensive lineman Matt Shaughnessy, a member of the Oakland Raiders and 2009 Pro Football Writers' All-Rookie selection. Additionally, linebacker DeAndre Levy (Detroit Lions), defensive tackle Nick Hayden (Carolina Panthers), linebacker Jonathan Casillas (New Orleans Saints) and safety Chris Maragos (San Francisco 49ers) were in the professional ranks.

Prior to Wisconsin, McCray coached the defensive line and linebackers at Toledo from 2003-05. In his final season, McCray oversaw a defensive front that helped the Rockets to a 9-3 record, the Mid-American Conference West Division title and a 45-13 victory over UTEP in the GMAC Bowl. McCray coached the linebackers at Toledo his initial two years, including the 2004 season when the Rockets captured the MAC championship with a 9-3 record.

McCray served as defensive coordinator and inside linebackers coach at Illinois State from 2000-02. He was promoted to assistant head coach his final season with the Redbirds. McCray oversaw the development of All-America linebacker Boomer Grigsby, who was a finalist for the 2002 Buck Buchanan Award, annually presented to the top defensive player on the Football Championship Subdivision level. Grigsby went on to NFL stints with the Kansas City Chiefs and Miami Dolphins.

McCray has also coached two other All-America performers at linebacker: Galen Scott at Illinois State in 2000 and Ronnie Merritt at Murray State in 1998.

McCray handled inside linebackers at Murray State (1997-99) and became the Racers' defensive coordinator in 1999. His additional coaching appointments include defensive ends at Bethune-Cookman (1996), quality control at Clemson (1995), defensive line at Tennessee-Chattanooga (1993-94) and graduate assistant at South Carolina (1991-92).

A two-year letterman as an outside linebacker and running back at Appalachian State, McCray was a member of the Mountaineers' 1987 Southern Conference championship team, as well as two teams that advanced to the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs.

McCray earned a bachelor's degree in communications from Appalachian State in 1991 and a master's degree in higher education from South Carolina. A native of Monroe, N.C., McCray and his wife Michelle have two children, son Matt and daughter Mallory.

Entering his 21st year in the collegiate coaching ranks, RANDALL McCRAY is in his first season as outside linebackers and special teams coordinator.

McCray spent the 2010 season at Middle Tennessee State, where he was the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach. Prior to MTSU, he spent four years at Wisconsin (2006-09) and helped the Badgers to bowl berths each season.

In his lone season at Middle Tennessee State, McCray helped the Blue Raiders earn a berth in the GoDaddy.com Bowl. His defense ranked 10th nationally in tackles for loss (7.38 TFLs/game) and 17th in quarterback sacks (2.62 sacks/game) while featuring the Sun Belt

Todd Graham calls SHAWN GRISWOLD "the best strength and conditioning coach in America."

The praise is well deserved. Griswold's efforts were instrumental in helping Tulsa field one of the country's most explosive teams over the past decade. The highly conditioned Golden Hurricane averaged nearly 80 plays a game in 2010, ranking fifth nationally in total offense, sixth in scoring and 15th in rushing yards. Tulsa's mentally tough defense ranked third in turnovers forced.

When Graham was named Pitt's head football coach in January, one of his first moves was to hire Griswold as the program's director of strength and conditioning.

"Shawn is instrumental in everything we do," Graham said. "His work in strength and conditioning provides the necessary foundation, both physically and mentally, for our football program to succeed on the field."

From the first moment of his arrival, Griswold has been hard at work readying the Panthers for their new "high-octane" style of play in 2011. "We want to be the best conditioned team in the country," Griswold said. "We want our training to be the deciding factor in the fourth quarter when the game is on the line."

Griswold had two stints at Tulsa (2004-06 and 2008-10) as director of strength and conditioning. During that time the Golden Hurricane earned four bowl berths and captured the 2005 Conference USA championship. In addition to working with the football team, he also had oversight of the entire strength and conditioning program for Tulsa athletics.

Prior to Tulsa, Griswold spent five years as head strength and conditioning coordinator at his alma mater, Utah State. He oversaw the athletic development for 16 varsity sports and was directly responsible for designing the strength and conditioning programs for football, basketball and volleyball.

A former football student-athlete at USU, Griswold's career began as a graduate assistant coach for the Aggies before he was promoted to assistant strength and conditioning coordinator.

Griswold is not unfamiliar with Big East Conference circles having served at Louisville in 2007 as an assistant strength and conditioning coach for the Cardinals.

Griswold earned both his bachelor's and master's degrees from Utah State. He received a bachelor's degree in exercise science in 1996 and a masters of science degree in 1998.

Griswold and his wife Angie have two children, Jaxson and Mollie.

CHRIS LASALA is in his 15th year with the University of Pittsburgh Athletic Department. LaSala has served Pitt as an assistant athletic director the past 12 years.

A native of Aliquippa, Pa., LaSala worked as Pitt's director of football operations from 1997-2010. In 2011, his focus has expanded to not only serve the football program but also broader duties that impact the overall athletic department.

In 2004 he was named a recipient of the prestigious Chancellor's Award for Staff Excellence in service to the University of Pittsburgh. In 2006 LaSala was recognized as an "Outstanding Graduate" of Temple University's sport/recreation administration program.

LaSala was a chief coordinator and planner for Pitt's move to its state-of-the-art practice facility, the UPMC Sports Performance Complex. He has been instrumental in the planning of Pitt's trips to the 2011 BBVA Compass Bowl, 2009 Meineke Car Care Bowl, 2008 Sun Bowl, 2005 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, 2003 Continental Tire Bowl, 2002 Insight Bowl, 2001 Visit Florida Tangerine Bowl, 2000 Insight.com Bowl and 1997 AXA/Equitable Liberty Bowl.

LaSala's career in athletics began at Temple, where he served as a graduate assistant. He then came to the University of Pittsburgh as an athletic department intern in 1989.

Prior to his 1997 Pitt appointment he served three years as the director of football operations at Boston College (1994-96), where he handled all the administrative duties for the football program, including overseeing the travel arrangements and organizing BC's youth camps.

During his BC tenure, the Eagles captured the 1994 Aloha Bowl and participated in the 1995 Kickoff Classic.

Before Boston College, LaSala spent four years at Temple (1990-93) as recruiting coordinator and ultimately was elevated to assistant athletic director. He initially joined Temple as a graduate assistant in 1988 and then returned to the Owls' football staff in 1990 as the administrative assistant.

LaSala graduated from West Virginia in 1988 with a bachelor's degree in accounting. He earned his master's degree in sports administration from Temple in 1991.

COACHING EXPERIENCE

COLLEGE

TULSA, 1968, graduate assistant; 1969, freshman coach; 1970-74, linebackers; 1975, defensive coordinator.

TEXAS CHRISTIAN, 1976-81, defensive coordinator; 1979-81, assistant head coach.

PITTSBURGH, 1982-85, defensive coordinator & linebackers.

NORTHWESTERN, 1986-87, defensive coordinator.

AKRON, 1988-94, associate head coach & defensive coordinator.

KENT STATE, 1995-96, defensive coordinator & linebackers.

PITTSBURGH, 1997-2005, defensive tackles; 2000-2006, assistant head coach; 2006, recruiting coordinator; 2007-present, director of football relations and program enhancement.

After spending nearly four decades in the coaching ranks, BOB JUNKO moved to the administrative side of college football in 2007 as Pitt's director of football relations and program enhancement.

Junko is a natural for the role given his tremendous football acumen and contacts. Now in his fifth year in that capacity, he assists in the daily operations of the program and also has a focus on the Panthers' extended family of football alumni.

One of the best-known football figures in the tri-state area, Junko has been a highly valuable figure within the Pitt program. He played a major role in the Panthers' recruiting successes over the past decade and in 2006 was named one of the nation's top 25 recruiters by Rivals.com.

The 2011 season marks the 15th year of Junko's second tour at Pittsburgh. He initially coached at Pitt from 1982-85, serving as defensive coordinator under head coach Foge Fazio. He returned in 1997 as defensive tackles coach under Walt Harris and was elevated to assistant head coach in 2000.

Prior to returning to Pittsburgh, Junko was the defensive coordinator at Kent State from 1995-96. Junko also served as the associate head coach and defensive coordinator for seven years at Akron (1988-94). He additionally held similar positions at Northwestern, TCU and Tulsa, his alma mater.

In his first stint with the Panthers, the 1982 team received a Cotton Bowl bid and finished ninth in the country. The 1983 Panthers earned a Fiesta Bowl berth and ranked 19th in the final polls.

Among the standouts on those defenses were tackle Bill Maas, defensive end Chris Doleman and defensive backs Tim Lewis and Tom Flynn, all of whom went on to careers in the NFL.

As a collegian, Junko starred at Tulsa as an inside linebacker and was an Honorable Mention All-American in 1967. He also was named to the All-Missouri Valley Conference team twice and served as team captain.

Junko earned a bachelor's degree in history education in 1968 and his master's in educational administration in 1970 at Tulsa. He was inducted into the University of Tulsa Sports Hall of Fame in 2007.

ROB BLANC is in his 24th year as head football athletic trainer and clinical instructor at Pitt. With his exceptional sports medicine knowledge and experience, Blanc is a tremendous resource for the entire Pitt athletic department.

Since his appointment as head athletic trainer in 1993, he has been responsible for overseeing all of the clinical medical services for Pitt. Blanc additionally has led Pitt's Performance Team the last 11 years. The Performance Team is a unique blending of the university's numerous resources to serve the total well being of Pitt student-athletes.

Blanc coordinates sports coverage, budget, inventory, drug testing and counseling. Additionally, he is an adjunct clinical instructor for Pitt's undergraduate athletic training curriculum, approved by the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA).

In 2009, Blanc co-authored the textbook Emergency Care in Athletic Training with three graduates of the University of Pittsburgh.

Blanc graduated from Slippery Rock in 1982 and earned his master's in athletic training in 1984 from Ohio University. He is also a certified paramedic and was involved in an emergency medical service for 17 years in nearby Bethel Park.

A native of Pittsburgh, Blanc served as head athletic trainer at neighboring Duquesne University for two years before joining the Panthers' staff.

Blanc began his athletic training career as the head athletic trainer at New Lexington (Ohio) High School in 1983. A year later, he began working for the Pittsburgh Steelers on a part-time basis, serving at training camp and at all home games.

BO GRAHAM

HEAD GRADUATE ASSISTANT, ASSISTANT RECEIVERS COACH

Bo Graham enters his first season at the University of Pittsburgh, serving as the head graduate assistant and assistant receivers coach.

Graham comes to Pitt from Tulsa Central High School, where he served as the offensive coordinator in 2009 and 2010. Prior to his time at TCHS, Graham was at the University of Tulsa, where he served as the running backs coach for two seasons (2007-08), and as a student assistant from 2003-05. In his second stint with the Golden Hurricanes, they earned a bowl victory in the GMAC Bowl in 2008 and led the country in total offense both seasons.

While at Tulsa, Graham guided Tarrion Adams in becoming the first running back in school history to total over 3,000 rushing yards and 1,000 receiving yards in a career. Adams also recorded back-to-back seasons of 1,000-plus rushing yards in both 2007 and 2008, becoming Tulsa's single-season and career record holder for rushing.

In 2008, Graham helped Tulsa rank fifth nationally in rushing offense. In 2007, he guided Rivals.com Freshman All-American Charles Clay, who recorded 1,024 receiving yards and 304 rushing yards as a fullback.

Between his two stints at Tulsa, Graham served as coordinator of speed and skill development and as assistant strength and conditioning coach at Rice University during the 2006 season.

As a student coach at Tulsa (2003-05), Graham served as an assistant in the secondary. In 2005, the Golden Hurricane earned an invitation to the AutoZone Liberty Bowl after winning the Conference USA championship. In his first season, Tulsa made a trip to the 2003 Humanitarian Bowl.

In each of his three seasons as an undergrad, Tulsa's defense ranked among the top 40 nationally in takeaways, interceptions, pass defense efficiency, pass defense and total defense.

Graham's collegiate career began, however, as a player at West Virginia in 2001 as a walk-on receiver. Following an injury, Graham moved to the sidelines as a student assistant coach for the Mountaineers for the 2002 season.

Graham earned his bachelor's degree in exercise sports science with a minor in marketing from Tulsa in 2006.

MATT CAPONI

DEFENSIVE GRADUATE ASSISTANT

Matt Caponi enters his first season on the Pitt staff, serving as a defensive graduate assistant. Caponi comes to the University of Pittsburgh from Washington & Jefferson College, where he was the defensive coordinator for the past three seasons.

In addition to his coordinator duties at W&J, Caponi served as linebackers coach in 2010 and was in charge of the secondary for both the 2008 and 2009 seasons. Caponi's defenses consistently ranked at the top of the conference in every major statistical category. He led a 2009 W&J defense which finished the season ranked among the top 10 nationally in total defense, scoring defense, rushing defense, defensive pass efficiency and sacks per game.

Before being elevated to defensive coordinator in 2008, Caponi was W&J's secondary coach and JV defensive coordinator for the 2006 and 2007 seasons. Prior to his stint at W&J, Caponi was the JV defensive coordinator and coached linebackers at his alma mater, Mount Union College. He entered the coaching ranks as a student assistant at Mount Union in 2004.

Caponi enjoyed an extremely successful playing career at free safety for Mount Union from 2000-2003. Elected a team captain in 2003, Caponi earned second-team all-conference honors and led his team in interceptions. Mount Union was crowned NCAA Division III national champions during each of his first three seasons (2000, 2001 and 2002), finishing as runner-up in 2003.

Caponi earned his bachelor's degree in physical education with a minor in health/secondary education from Mount Union in 2005.

TREVOR DIELEMAN

ASSISTANT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Trevor Dieleman enters his first season on the Pitt staff and will serve as an assistant strength and conditioning coach with the Panthers. Dieleman comes to Pitt from Tulsa, where he worked with various sports, including football, for three seasons. At Pitt, Dieleman will team with Shawn Griswold and Travis Pelletier in overseeing the strength and conditioning program.

Prior to his stint at Tulsa, Dieleman spent two years as a graduate strength and conditioning coach at Illinois State specializing in football, men's and women's basketball, baseball, volleyball, swimming and diving and track and field.

As an undergrad, Dieleman served two seasons as a student assistant at Central College in Iowa and three seasons in the same capacity at Iowa State.

Dieleman earned his bachelor's degree in exercise and sport science from Central College in 2006, and earned his master's in kinesiology and recreation from Illinois State in 2008. Dieleman and his wife Sarah have two children, Grant and Claire.

TRAVIS PELLETIER

ASSISTANT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Travis Pelletier enters his first season as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Pitt. He will assist Shawn Griswold and Trevor Dieleman with the Panthers' various training regimens throughout the year.

Pelletier comes to Pitt from Tulsa, where he served as a graduate assistant strength and conditioning coach from 2008-10. He earned his master's in business administration in December 2010 from the University of Tulsa.

Prior to his time at Tulsa, Pelletier was a graduate assistant at Northwestern State in the spring and summer of 2008. In the fall of 2007, Pelletier spent a semester at the Olympic Training Center in Chula Vista, Calif., as a strength and conditioning intern.

Pelletier earned his bachelor's degree from Oklahoma in 2006. He married the former Lindsey Tower in July of 2010.

DAVE BUCAR

OFFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

Dave Bucar enters his third season with the Panthers, and first serving in the capacity of offensive quality control.

Bucar is a 2009 graduate of Washington & Jefferson College, where he earned his bachelor's degree in business management. He was a stellar offensive lineman for W&J, making 38 consecutive starts at center, and was named an NCAA Division III All-American in 2008.

In his current position on the Pitt staff, Bucar is responsible for day-to-day administrative work such as scouting reports, self scout, practice organization and film breakdown.

DAN LANNING

DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

Dan Lanning enters his first season on the Pitt football staff in the capacity of defensive quality control. Lanning comes to the Panthers from Park Hill South High School in Missouri, where he served in numerous positions including most recently as the defensive backs coach.

Prior to Lanning's duties on defense, he was the special teams coordinator at Park Hill South in 2009 and was the wide receivers coach in 2008 and 2009.

During that stint, he also held the title of assistant weight lifting coach.

In 2008, Lanning worked at Kearney High School, also in Missouri, as the assistant weight lifting coach. While there, he helped coach a program which won the National Weight Lifting Championship in the spring of 2008.

Lanning earned two degrees from William Jewell College in 2008 (physical education and secondary education) and earned a master's in secondary administration from William Woods University. He was an all-conference linebacker, a team captain and a three-time scholar-athlete at WJC. Lanning is married to the former Sauphia Vorngsam. The couple has two sons, Caden Lee and Kniles Atticus.

TIM DUNLAVEY

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Tim Dunlavey enters his fourth season as an assistant athletic trainer for the Pitt football team. He assists head athletic trainer Rob Blanc in all aspects of the Panthers' sports medicine needs.

Dunlavey came to Pitt from Penn State, where he served as an assistant athletic trainer for their men's and women's track and field teams in 2007-08.

The 2004 Pitt graduate in rehabilitation sciences earned his master's in allied health management from Ohio State in 2007, where he also served as a graduate assistant athletic trainer for the Buckeye football team. Between his two degrees, Dunlavey served as a certified athletic training intern with the Northwestern football team from 2004-2005. He is an NATABOC certified athletic trainer with certified first aid, CPR and AED training and is an accredited clinical instructor.

DALE THORNTON

GRADUATE ASSISTANT TRAINER

Dale Thornton enters his second year as a graduate assistant athletic trainer for Pitt football and third season overall at Pitt. Thornton earned his Bachelor of Science degree in athletic training in 2010 from the University of Pittsburgh.

In addition to stints with Pitt football, swimming and diving and baseball as an undergraduate, Thornton worked at Carnegie Mellon University from January to April of 2010 as an athletic training student. In the summer of 2009, Thornton served as an athletic training intern with the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Thornton, a McKeesport native, is a student member of the National Athletic Trainers Association, Pennsylvania Athletic Trainers Society and the Eastern Athletic Trainers Association. In addition, Thornton is certified in CPR and AED by the American Red Cross and an EMT by the Pennsylvania Department of Health.

ALEX HODGE

VIDEO COORDINATOR

Alex Hodge enters his first season at Pitt, serving as the team's video coordinator. Hodge comes from the University of Tulsa, where he served in the same capacity from 2007 through the 2010 seasons. His duties at Pitt include assisting the football coaching staff with game film breakdown, opponent scouting and film exchange, coordinating practice and game video and the development of motivational videos.

Prior to his time at Tulsa, Hodge was the football video coordinator at Rice for one season (2006), also under head coach Todd Graham. From 2003-05, he served as the assistant video coordinator at Wisconsin, specifically working with the defensive staff.

Hodge's career began at Illinois State as a student video coordinator. He earned his bachelor's degree from ISU in mass communications in 2003. Hodge, a native of Hoopston, Ill., is a member of the Collegiate Sports Video Association.

ERIC WICKS

VIDEO GRADUATE ASSISTANT

Pittsburgh native Eric Wicks comes to Pitt from Perry Traditional Academy where he served as a volunteer for the high school where he earned his diploma in 2003. As the video graduate assistant at Pitt, Wicks will assist video coordinator Alex Hodge with the team's various practice and game film needs.

Wicks was a standout safety for West Virginia, earning his bachelor's of science in athletic coaching education in 2007. Following his collegiate career, Wicks had a stint with the Seattle Seahawks and concluded his playing career with the Wheeling Wildcats of the CIFL in 2009.

Wicks has also served as a volunteer for Youth Places Organization (1998-2001) and with Beltzhoover Browns Youth Football (2008 and 2009 summers).

DEMETREUS H. DARDEN

FOOTBALL ACADEMIC COUNSELOR

Demetreus Darden enters his sixth year as an academic counselor with the Pitt football program, and is in his 10th year working with students at the collegiate level.

Darden, a native of Farrell, Pa., joined the University of Pittsburgh in December 2005. His primary responsibilities at Pitt are monitoring academic development, course scheduling and degree completion of junior and senior football players.

In addition to his responsibilities with football, Darden serves as the academic coordinator for the men's cross country and track and field teams.

Prior to his time at Pitt, Darden worked at neighboring Carnegie Mellon University as a program associate, working in support services for minority students.

Darden graduated from Kent State in 2002 with a bachelor's degree in history. Shortly after graduation he began his career in higher education as a student-activities coordinator at Kent State University's Trumbull Campus.

CHARLES SMALL

FOOTBALL ACADEMIC COUNSELOR

Charles Small enters his second year as an academic counselor for football, and his fourth overall in the Pitt athletic department. Small came to academics from the Panther Game Plan Life Skills Program, where he served as the Assistant Director of Life Skills for two years.

Small's academic responsibilities include working with the football program's sophomore class.

While a part of Pitt's Life Skills program, Small's primary role was to coordinate and track the community service projects for student-athletes and assist in coordinating life skills programs associated with the Panther Game Plan's other commitment areas including Athletic Achievement, Academic Achievement, Career and Graduate School Preparation, Personal Development, Health and Wellness, Financial Education and Character and Leadership Development.

As a walk-on on the Pitt men's basketball team from 2002-06, Small earned three varsity letters. He graduated from the University of Pittsburgh in 2006 with a social work degree and earned several academic honors including Big East Academic Honor Roll status and University of Pittsburgh Scholar-Athlete accolades throughout his undergraduate career. In 2007, Small obtained a master's degree in social work. Currently, he is working on a doctorate degree in higher education management in the School of Education.

Small is married to fellow University of Pittsburgh alumnus Celeste Small.

JEN TUSCANO

FOOTBALL ACADEMIC COUNSELOR

Jen Tuscano, in her eighth year as an academic coordinator at Pitt, begins her third season with the football team in 2011. In 2010, Tuscano was promoted to Assistant Director of Academic Support Services.

Tuscano works primarily with the freshman class, and also continues her duties as academic coordinator for the Pitt women's basketball program and the men's soccer team. In addition to her responsibilities on the academic side, Tuscano lends her knowledge and insight to the women's basketball radio broadcasts.

During her time at Pitt, Tuscano helped lead the women's basketball team to Academic All-America Team status and has been instrumental in head coach Agnus Berenato's eight-year perfect record of graduating players who have completed their eligibility as a Panther.

Tuscano joined the Panthers after serving as the athletic director at Meyersdale Area School District, where she was responsible for scheduling all athletics events, as well as directing and supervising after-school tutoring programs for student-athletes. Tuscano also served as head coach of the Meyersdale Area Junior High girl's basketball team from 1997-2004 and was a member of the Meyersdale Athletic Boosters, the PIAA District 5 Committee and the Pennsylvania State Education Association.

Tuscano received her bachelor's degree from the University of Pittsburgh at Johnstown in 1999, where she spent four years on the women's basketball team. She completed her master's degree in sports science from Indiana University of Pennsylvania in 2007.

LEE COLEMAN

ACADEMIC GRADUATE ASSISTANT

Lee Coleman comes to Pitt from Northwestern, where he was a wide receiver for the Wildcats from 2006-10. At the University of Pittsburgh, Coleman will serve as the team's academic graduate assistant and work closely with academic support services to provide Pitt's football players with the resources necessary to achieve academic success.

Coleman received his bachelor's in education and social policy in 2010 with a major in learning and organizational change. While enrolled at Northwestern, Coleman worked at the Bill Carmody Basketball Camp in Evanston, Ill., as a coach and mentor. Additionally, he volunteered with Misericordia, a non-profit organization that benefits people with developmental challenges, served as an advisor at Gatorade Junior Training Camp and as a retail operations intern at Shore Bank in Chicago.

TIM ENRIGHT

EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Tim Enright is in his 15th year as the head equipment manager for the Pitt football team.

In this capacity he supervises the equipment operation for the 100-plus member team, including organizing travel and transportation of equipment for away games and managing the day-to-day equipment needs for the players and coaching staff.

Enright has a long association with Pitt football and the University of Pittsburgh. As an undergraduate at Pitt, he was a student football manager (1987-91) and served as the team's head manager his senior year.

Following graduation in 1991, Enright worked one year at Martin Media Advertising before serving as a youth counselor at the Shuman Detention Center. He returned to his alma mater in 1993 as an assistant equipment manager in charge of the men's basketball team.

Enright was promoted to his current post with the football team in 1997. He has handled the equipment travel for 11 bowl teams in total at Pitt.

UTAH REDZONE

UTAH VS. PITT | SEPTEMBER 2, 2010

GAME 1

NR/#24 UTAH 27 • #15/15 PITT 24 (OT)
SEPT. 2, 2010
RICE-ECCLES STADIUM • 45,730

Playing its first season opener on the road since 1993, No. 15 Pitt fell to No. 24 Utah, 27-24, in OT...it was Utah's 18th consecutive home victory, a streak dating back to 2007...trailing 24-13 midway through the final period, Pitt rallied to force overtime...Tino Sunseri, making his first collegiate start, hit Jon Baldwin on a 44-yard TD strike and subsequent 2-point conversion pass to make it 24-21 with 7:11 to go...on its final possession of regulation, Pitt took over at the 50 and moved to the Utah 13, where Dan Hutchins tied the game with a 30-yard field goal...Pitt had the ball first in OT and on its first play was intercepted by Brian Blechen...the Utes then converted a 21-yard FG for the victory.

GAME 3

#19/19 MIAMI 31 • PITT 3

SEPT. 23, 2010

HEINZ FIELD • 58,115

A smothering defensive effort led Miami past Pitt in the first meeting between the two schools since 2003...the visiting Hurricanes (2-1) led 10-0 at the half and 17-0 heading in the fourth quarter...despite being outgained 204-76 in the first half, Pitt remained in contention due to a pair of interceptions by Dom DeCicco and Jarred Holley...Dan Hutchins' 27-yard field goal with 14:27 to play made it 17-3...the Panthers (1-2) were poised to cut the deficit further but fumbled a punt away at their own 43 with 12:19 left...three plays later Jacory Harris threw his second TD pass of the game, a 10-yarder to Travis Benjamin, to seal the result...it marked the first time in 60 games at Heinz Field that Pitt scored fewer than 10 points.

GAME 8

PITT 20 • LOUISVILLE 3
OCT. 30, 2010
HEINZ FIELD • 48,562

Pitt ran its winning streak to three games on the strength of an outstanding defensive effort...the Panthers limited Louisville's 442-yard per game offense to a season-low 185...the Cardinals mustered only 74 yards in the second half and were held scoreless on their final nine possessions after taking a first-quarter 3-0 lead...UL's Bilal Powell entered the game as the Big East's top rusher (No. 4 nationally) averaging 143.3 yards per game, but managed only 64 on 11 carries before leaving the game in the third period due to injury...Dom DeCicco and Jabaal Sheard led Pitt's defensive effort...DeCicco had 11 tackles and an INT...Sheard had two sacks and two forced fumbles...his sack and strip of Adam Froman resulted in a 56-yard fumble return by Myles Caragein to the UL 5...Dion Lewis scored three plays later, providing the final margin...Pitt (5-3, 3-0) remained atop the Big East standings with the win...Louisville fell to 4-4 and 1-2.

GAME 9

CONNECTICUT 30 • PITT 28

NOV. 11, 2010

RENTSCHLER FIELD • 35,391

Pitt's three-game winning streak was halted with a 30-28 setback to Connecticut...Pitt (5-4, 3-1) entered the contest with a two-game lead in the Big East and looked poised to gain bowl eligibility when they led 21-13 late in the third period...but two special teams miscues opened the door to 17-unanswered points by UConn...Pitt led 21-13 when Ray Graham scored on a five-yard run with 13 seconds remaining in the third quarter...Nick Williams returned the ensuing kickoff 95 yards for a TD, pulling UConn to within 21-20...UConn would then score 10 points in 48 seconds to seize a 30-21 lead with 6:19 remaining...the Huskies' final score was a 14-yard TD pass from Zach Frazer to Isaiah Moore that came two plays after Pitt fumbled away a kickoff at its own 21...Jon Baldwin caught a 20-yard TD pass with 4:35 left to get the Panthers within two but they would draw no closer...UConn (5-4, 2-2) iced the game when Jordan Todman, who rushed for 222 yards, converted a 4th-and-1 from the Huskies' own 19 with 2½ minutes left.

GAME 10

PITT 17 • USF 10

NOV. 20, 2010

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM • 43,844

Pitt put the brakes on surging South Florida's three-game winning streak with a 17-10 victory at Raymond James Stadium...Dion Lewis rushed for a game-high 105 yards, including a 22-yard touchdown run to open the fourth quarter that broke a 10-10 tie and proved to be the game winner...the win was Pitt's third consecutive over USF and kept the Panthers atop the Big East standings with a 4-1 league mark (6-4 overall)...the Bulls (6-4, 3-3) were held to 285 total yards...their lone TD came on a wide receiver reverse by Terrence Mitchell, who scampered 45 yards to tie the game at 10 with 4:07 left in the third period...Dom DeCicco led Pitt's defensive effort with 13 tackles, matching his career high...Antwan Reed ended the Bulls' last-gasp drive with an interception at the Pitt 20 as time expired...the 17 points were Pitt's lowest in a winning effort since Dec. 1, 2007, when it upset West Virginia, 13-9...with the win the Panthers became bowl eligible for the third consecutive season.

GAME 11

WEST VIRGINIA 35 • PITT 10

NOV. 26, 2010

HEINZ FIELD • 60,562

Four turnovers doomed Pitt in a 35-10 loss to West Virginia in the 103rd edition of the "Backyard Brawl"...the Panthers held statistical advantages in total offense (362 yards to 360), first downs (20 to 13) and time of possession (33:28 to 26:32)...the turnover differential proved to be the most decisive stat: Pitt lost three fumbles and threw an interception, while West Virginia did not have a single turnover...particularly frustrating was a first half that saw the Panthers compile 205 yards to West Virginia's 75, but Pitt still trailed 14-7 at intermission...the Mountaineers seized control in the third period when Geno Smith threw two touchdown passes, including a 71-yard bomb to Tavon Austin on the third play of the second half...Smith finished 9 of 12 for 212 yards with three TDs and no interceptions...the loss created a three-way tie atop the Big East standings between Pitt, West Virginia and Connecticut, each with 4-2 league marks...West Virginia improved to 8-3 overall, while the Panthers fell to 6-5.

GAME 12

PITT 28 • CINCINNATI 10

DEC. 4, 2010

NIPPERT STADIUM • 27,496

Dion Lewis accounted for all four Pitt touchdowns to power the Panthers past host Cincinnati, 28-10, in the regular-season finale for both teams...playing in snowy conditions that limited the passing game, Lewis carried 42 times for a career-high 261 yards (6.2 avg.)...his four rushing TDs also marked a career best...in two career games vs. the Bearcats, Lewis rushed for 455 yards and seven TDs on 89 carries (5.1 avg.)...Pitt limited Cincinnati to just 265 yards in total offense, well below their Big East-leading average of 431.2...the Panthers forced four turnovers, including two interceptions by Dom DeCicco, who moved from his safety spot to play "nickel linebacker"...middle linebacker Max Gruder had an interception and fumble recovery, while defensive tackle Chas Alecxih had a team-high eight tackles...Pitt closed the regular season 7-5 overall and tied for first in the Big East with a 5-2 mark...Cincinnati finished 4-8 and 2-5...the win clinched a BBVA Compass Bowl invite for the Panthers.

GAME 13

PITT 27 • KENTUCKY 10
JAN. 8, 2011
LEGION FIELD • 41,207

Pitt utilized a punishing running game and forced two Kentucky punting miscues to defeat the Wildcats, 27-10, in the BBVA Compass Bowl...Andrew Taglianetti blocked a punt to set up Pitt's first touchdown late in the second quarter, giving the Panthers a 13-3 lead...Pitt then forced an incomplete pass on a UK fake punt early in the third, setting up Tino Sunseri's 13-yard TD pass to Brock DeCicco that made it 20-3...Kentucky countered with its only touchdown, a one-yard run by Moncell Allen later in the period that cut the deficit to 10...but the Panthers answered with a long drive capped by a two-yard TD run by Dion Lewis to seal the result...Lewis rushed for 105 yards and a TD to earn his second consecutive bowl MVP award...defensively the Panthers held Kentucky well below its average of 33 points per game...defensive backs Dom DeCicco and K'Waun Williams had nine tackles each...Pitt, playing the game under acting head coach Phil Bennett, finished 8-5, while the Wildcats fell to 6-7.

RATING SYSTEMS

To settle countless arguments, Sports Illustrated in 1970 researched the first and only complete and wholly accurate list ever compiled of college football's mythical national champions. Every recognized authority that ever presumed to name a No. 1 was included:

Associated Press (1936-current) poll of sportswriters and broadcasters.

Parke H. Davis Ratings (1889-1935) chosen by Davis, a player at Princeton in 1889 and a former coach at Wisconsin, Amherst and Lafayette, and first published in the 1934 Spalding's Football Guide.

Dickinson System (1924-40) chosen by University of Illinois economics professor Frank G. Dickinson; based on system that awarded various point totals for wins over teams with winning or non-winning records.

Dunkel System (1929-current) a power index rating system devised by Dick Dunkel and syndicated to newspapers around the nation.

Football Writers Association of America (1954-current) chosen by a five-man committee representing membership.

Helms First Interstate Bank Athletic Foundation (1889-1982) originally founded in 1936 as Helms Athletic Foundation and changed in the early 1970s to Citizens Savings Athletic Foundation before current name was adopted in 1981.

Illustrated Football Annual (1924-41) an "azzi ratem" system published in this highly regarded magazine by William F. Boand.

Litkenhouse System (1934-1984) a "difference-by-score" method syndicated by Fred Litkenhouse and his brother Edward.

National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame (1959-1995) chosen annually by committee representing membership.

The Football Thesaurus (1927-58) system devised by Duke Houlgate and published in book of same title.

United Press International (1950-1995) poll of 35 college coaches. (Became the USA Today coaches poll.)

Williamson System (1932-63) system of syndicated power ratings chosen by Paul Williamson, a geologist and member of the Sugar Bowl committee.

Tony Dorsett and John Majors led Pittsburgh to its last national championship in 1976.

The Bowl Championship Series (BCS) was devised in 1998 to determine a national champion for college football. The arrangement matches the country's two top-rated teams against each other in a title game. Participating bowls include the Fiesta, Orange, Rose and Sugar. In addition to those four games, a BCS National Championship Game will be played at one of the bowl sites, which began for the 2006 season.

Sports Illustrated trumpets the Panthers' 1976 championship following a victory over Georgia (27-3) in the Sugar Bowl.

Times Computer Poll ranked the Panthers as the best team in the country. An amazing 12 players from that squad were selected in the NFL draft the following spring, including three first-rounders.

- Pitt has finished second in a major poll three times. It has ranked in the top four 10 times.

Marshall Goldberg and Coach Jock Sutherland helped Pittsburgh to national championships in 1936 and 1937.

The University of Pittsburgh has won nine national championships — the most of any Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) program in the East and the sixth best ever. Pitt's national champion teams not only ranked as the best in the land in that given year, but in many cases were among the elite teams in college football history.

- Under the direction of Head Coach John Majors in 1976, Pitt completed perhaps the most miraculous turnaround in college football history by rolling to a 12-0 record and claiming the school's ninth national title. The flawless record was a stark contrast to five seasons prior, when the Panthers went 1-10. The 1976 Panthers were lauded as the 17th greatest college team of all-time by Sporting News.
- The legendary Jock Sutherland coached Pitt to five national titles during his coaching tenure. Sutherland's 1937 unit ranked as the best team in the land with a 9-0-1 record. Among the Panthers' vanquished opponents that year: Penn State (28-7), Notre Dame (21-6), Nebraska (13-7), Wisconsin (21-0) and West Virginia (20-0). The tie? A 0-0 deadlock with Fordham.
- Under Glenn "Pop" Warner, Pitt won three national championships in four years. Considered one of the greatest coaches in football history, Warner directed the Panthers to titles in 1915, 1916 and 1918. During that period, Pitt won 30 straight games.

- Perhaps Pitt's greatest team ever didn't win a national title. The Panthers' 1980 team finished second in both major polls with an 11-1 record, its lone blemish an October loss at Florida State. Although Pitt finished second in both the Associated Press and United Press International polls, The New York

Legendary tailback Tony Dorsett was selected as the winner of the Heisman Trophy in 1976, the same season he led the Panthers to the national title with a 12-0 record. While Dorsett is Pitt's lone winner of the Heisman, the Panthers have had eight total players finish in the top five in the final balloting. Pitt players have finished in the top 10 of the Heisman voting 14 times.

PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

A third-round draft choice of Washington in 1981, RUSS GRIMM went on to start 11 seasons at guard for the Redskins (1981-91) and helped lead the team to four Super Bowl appearances and three victories. He was voted to four consecutive Pro Bowls (1983-86) and was a first-team selection to the 1980s All-Decade Team. Grimm was an original member of Washington's renowned "Hogs" offensive line, which also included another all-time Pitt great, Mark May. Grimm was a member of the 2010 Pro Football Hall of Fame class.

Russ Grimm
Inducted 2010

A second-round draft pick by New Orleans, RICKEY JACKSON spent 15 seasons in the NFL (1981-95). He compiled an incredible 128 sacks, which ranked third all-time when he retired following the '95 campaign. Jackson recovered 28 fumbles (second most in NFL history) and forced 41 (fourth all-time). He broke up 118 passes. In 1994, he signed as a free agent with San Francisco and earned a ring that season as he helped the 49ers to a 49-26 victory in Super Bowl XXIX over San Diego. Jackson was a four-time All-Pro selection and six-time Pro Bowler. He was a member of the 2010 Pro Football Hall of Fame class.

Rickey Jackson

DAN MARINO was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2005. Marino had a legendary 17-year career with the Miami Dolphins. An nine-time Pro Bowler, he retired after the 1999 season holding an incredible 25 NFL regular-season records and as the career leader in passing attempts (8,358), completions (4,967), yardage (61,361) and touchdowns (420). He was also one of the winningest quarterbacks in NFL history, earning 147 regular-season victories, one behind all-time leader John Elway.

TONY DORSETT was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1994. When he retired from the NFL following the 1989 season, he was the league's second all-time leading rusher with 12,739 yards. Dorsett has the distinction of being one of only two players in the history of football to win the Heisman Trophy, a collegiate national championship, a Super Bowl championship, and to be elected into the college and pro football halls of fame.

MIKE DITKA was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1988. Ditka was an All-America tight end at Pitt in 1960, his senior season. Ditka's pro football career included All-Pro honors. He also was a member of the Chicago Bears' 1963 NFL Championship squad. Ditka worked as an assistant coach at Dallas for nine seasons, spent 11 seasons as the head coach of the Chicago Bears (winning Super Bowl XX) and three seasons as head coach of the New Orleans Saints.

JOE SCHMIDT, Pitt's other inductee in the Pro Football Hall of Fame, was an All-America linebacker at Pitt in 1952. He went on to spend 13 years with the Detroit Lions, and was a member of the Lions' two NFL championship teams. Schmidt was named to an amazing 10 Pro Bowls. He later coached the team for six seasons and led Detroit to its only playoff appearance of the 1970s. He was inducted in 1973.

Dan Marino

Quarterback

1979 - 82

- While at Pitt from 1979-82, broke nearly every major passing record in school history, including career marks for passing yards (8,597) and completions (693).
- Twenty-nine years after his final collegiate season, still holds Pitt records for touchdown passes in a career (79) and season (37).
- Led Pitt to four consecutive Top 10 finishes, including a pair of No. 2 rankings.
- Enhanced his reputation for delivering in the clutch in the 1982 Sugar Bowl, when he threw a 33-yard touchdown pass to tight end John Brown with 35 seconds left to give Pitt a come-from-behind 24-20 victory over Georgia.
- Named a 1981 All-American and finished fourth in the Heisman Trophy balloting that year.
- A first-round draft pick of the Miami Dolphins in 1983, Marino went on to gain recognition as one of the greatest quarterbacks in NFL history with a record-breaking 17-year career. He retired following the 1999 season as the league's all-time leader in passing attempts (8,358), completions (4,967), yardage (61,361) and touchdowns (420).
- Was elected into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2002 and the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2005.
- Named a special trustee for the University of Pittsburgh in June 2008.

Tony Dorsett

Running Back

1973 - 76

33

- Winner of the 1976 Heisman Trophy, Maxwell Award and Walter Camp Award and was a four-time All-American (1973-76).
- First player in NCAA history to reach 6,000 career rushing yards. Including bowl games, rushed for 6,526 yards. His NCAA-recognized total (not including bowls) of 6,082 yards stood as the Division I record for 22 years (1976-98).
- Gained 100 or more yards 36 times, including 20 consecutive games.
- Remains Pitt's all-time leading scorer with 380 points.
- Holds Notre Dame opponent records for rushing yards against the Irish in a career (754) and game (303).
- Led Pitt to the 1976 national championship with a 12-0 record.
- In 1977, was the first-round pick of the Dallas Cowboys where he played 11 seasons (1977-87), including two Super Bowls and four Pro Bowls. Played his final year with the Denver Broncos (1988) and finished his career as the second all-time leading rusher in NFL history (12,739).
- Was elected into the College Football Hall of Fame and Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1994.

Marshall Goldberg

Running Back

1936 - 38

42

- Earned back-to-back All-America honors as a halfback (1937) and fullback (1938).
- Member of the famed "Dream Backfield" at Pitt, considered one of college football's greatest back tandems ever.
- Was the runner-up for the Heisman Trophy in 1938 and placed third in the Heisman balloting in 1937.
- Led Pitt to national championships in 1936 and 1937 with a combined 17-1-2 record.
- Spent seven years in the NFL playing halfback for the Chicago Cardinals (1939-42, 46-48).
- Member of the Cardinals' 1947 NFL championship team and had his No. 99 jersey retired by the franchise.
- Elected into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1958.

Joe Schmidt

Linebacker

1950 - 52

- Earned All-America honors as a senior linebacker in 1952.
- As both a collegian and professional, Schmidt was considered the era's prototype for linebacker play — instinctive, aggressive and smart.
- Played in 10 Pro Bowls during his 13-year career (1953-65) with the Detroit Lions, which included two NFL championships.
- Served as the Lions head coach from 1967-72, leading Detroit to its only playoff appearance in the 1970s.
- Elected into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1973 and College Football Hall of Fame in 2000.

Mark May

Offensive Tackle

1977 - 80

- Named a unanimous All-American and the winner of the prestigious Outland Trophy in 1980. To this day he remains Pitt's only winner of the Outland.
- Did not give up a sack his final two collegiate seasons.
- Was Pitt's "go-to" player on third-and-short situations, earning him the nickname "May Day."
- Helped lead Pitt to a four-year record of 39-8-1, including four bowl games and three Top 10 finishes.
- Was selected by the Washington Redskins in the first round of the 1981 NFL Draft and achieved fame as a standout member of the team's "Hogs" offensive line from 1981-90. Helped the Redskins to three Super Bowls (1982, 1983 and 1987), including world championships in '82 and '87. Finished his pro career with the San Diego Chargers (1991) and Arizona Cardinals (1992-93).
- Elected into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2005.

Bill Fralic

Offensive Tackle

1981 - 84

- A three-time first team All-American, including unanimous status as a junior and senior.
- Became the first offensive lineman to twice finish in the top 10 of the Heisman Trophy balloting, placing sixth in 1984 and eighth in 1983.
- His collegiate career led to the creation of the "Pancake," a statistical barometer for each time Fralic put an opposing defensive lineman on his back.
- The second player taken overall in the 1985 NFL Draft, Fralic went on to an exceptional pro career from 1985-93, playing eight years with the Atlanta Falcons and his final season with the Detroit Lions. He was selected to the Pro Bowl four times.
- Was elected into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1998.

Mike Ditka

End

1958 - 60

89

- Was a unanimous All-America selection at end in 1960.
- Led Pitt in receiving three consecutive years and was also a standout linebacker and punter. He additionally played baseball and basketball at Pitt and was the intramural wrestling champion.

- In 1961 he was a first-round draft choice of the Chicago Bears and was a member of their 1963 NFL Championship team. He was also a member of the Dallas Cowboys when they won Super Bowl VI and earned All-Pro four times.
- Spent 11 seasons as the head coach of the Chicago Bears, leading them to victory in Super Bowl XX, and later coached the New Orleans Saints.
- Elected into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1986 and Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1988.

Hugh Green

Defensive End

1977 - 80

99

- A three-time first team All-American and won the 1980 Lombardi Award, Maxwell Award and the Walter Camp Award.
- Finished second in the 1980 Heisman Trophy balloting, an unprecedented finish for a purely defensive player.
- Was the first-ever defensive player to win the Walter Camp Award.
- Named to Pitt's All-Time Team after just his sophomore year.
- Thirty-one years following his final collegiate season, remains Pitt's all-time sack leader with 49.
- Helped lead Pitt to a four-year record of 39-8-1, including four bowl games and three Top 10 finishes.
- First-round selection by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1981 and played 11 years in the NFL.
- Elected into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1996.

ROSE BOWL • JAN. 2, 1928

Pasadena, Calif., The Rose Bowl

STANFORD	0	0	7	0	—	7
PITTSBURGH	0	0	6	0	—	6

Pitt's first bowl trip resembled a politician's whistle-stop tour—wherever Pitt was at lunchtime during its trek west, it practiced. The routine was simple: deboard the train around 11:15; explore the day's town until noon; lunch at 12; walk lunch off, then practice; reboard the train. So it was that Pitt practiced in Dodge City, Albuquerque and Winslow, Arizona, on the way to Pasadena. The game had a sentimental storyline: the coach against his mentor. Panther Head Coach John B. "Jock" Sutherland had played for Stanford Coach Glenn "Pop" Warner when the latter was at Pitt. Amidst all that, the game, although close, was controlled by Stanford. Pitt grabbed a 6-0 third-quarter lead when Jimmy Hagan scooped up a Cardinal fumble and ran 20 yards for a touchdown. The extra point was missed. Stanford, which made several marches deep into Pitt territory, finally scored on an unusual play. On fourth-and-goal at the two, Stanford quarterback Biff Hoffman completed a pass to Bob Sims, but it was short of the goal line. Sims was hit and fumbled, but Frank Wilton picked up the loose ball and carried it in to tie the game. Hoffman's extra point won it, 7-6. Pitt, a slight favorite entering the game, mustered very little offense in its first of four Rose Bowl games.

ROSE BOWL • JAN. 1, 1930

Pasadena, Calif., The Rose Bowl

SOUTHERN CAL	13	13	14	7	—	47
PITTSBURGH	0	0	7	7	—	14

If vintage football films give you the impression that the game of the 20s and 30s was run, run, and run again, think again. USC's Trojans bombed Pitt with an all-out passing attack. The game started on a bright note for "Jock" Sutherland's team when Toby Uansa rushed 68 yards on Pitt's first play. Pitt failed to score, then the walls caved in. Gaius Shaver connected with Henry Edelson for a 55-yard touchdown. Later in the quarter, Shaver hit Ernest Pinckert for a 28-yard score, capitalizing on a Pitt fumble. Another fumble led to USC's third touchdown, a short run which opened the score to 19-0. Two Jesses set up the Trojans' next score when Jesse Mortensen and Jesse Hill teamed for a 51-yard pass play. Russell Saunders helped convert a USC interception into a 33-0 lead with his 13-yard scoring run. Pitt finally broke through in the third quarter when Uansa threw a 28-yard pass to William Wallinchus. Southern Cal sandwiched two more long touchdown passes (38 and 62 yards) around a Tom Parkinson-to-Paul Collins 36-yard TD pass for Pitt to arrive at the final score. In all, the Trojans scored the most points against Pitt since 1903. It would be Sutherland's second-worst margin of defeat in his 15 seasons at Pitt; the worst would come three years later, also against USC in the Rose Bowl.

Pitt's coach, John B. "Jock" Sutherland, would try a new play after two Rose Bowl losses, so he took the team to Tucson to practice for its first Rose Bowl win. Instead Sutherland suffered the worst loss in his Pitt career. It was the first time since 1928 that Pitt was shut out and actually lost the game; it had played four scoreless ties since a 6-0 loss to Carnegie Tech. With 83,000 in attendance, the Panthers stayed close until the fourth quarter before collapsing. USC's Homer Griffith threw, and later caught, a touchdown pass as the Trojans built a 14-0 lead through three quarters. After Irvine Warburton scored to make the score 21-0, Pitt fumbled the kickoff, and Warburton scored again shortly thereafter. A blocked punt set up the final touchdown. Several Panthers were singled out by the crowd with standing ovations: ends Ted Dailey and Joe Skladany, guard Charles Hartwig, and back Warren Heller, who rushed for 63 yards in the final game of his brilliant Pitt career.

"Jock" Sutherland was intent on winning the Rose Bowl in his fourth try. To that end, Pitt spent two weeks working out on the west coast, for Sutherland was not going to accept 0-4 in Rose Bowl play. His tactics worked, and captain Bobby LaRue led Pitt to a 21-0 victory. LaRue's running set up the first touchdown of the game, which, fittingly, he scored. LaRue's 50-yard run in the third quarter, which would have gone 75 yards for the touchdown if not for a diving tackle, set up Frank Patrick's touchdown. Pitt led, 14-0, after three quarters. The defense added a late touchdown, returning an interception. So elated was Sutherland that he substituted every player who made the trip, so each could forever relate the experience of playing in a Rose Bowl victory. After four tries, the coach had finally overcome one of the few obstacles in his remarkable career.

A controversial pass interference penalty against Pitt's Bobby Grier, the first black man ever to play in the Sugar Bowl, put Georgia Tech on the doorstep for the game's only touchdown. Pitt, under new Head Coach John Michelosen—the only man in Pitt history to play and coach in bowl games (he was a quarterback on the 1936 Rose Bowl team)—had several chances to tie the game but hit a wall of futility. Grier's penalty gave Tech the ball on the 1, from where Wade Mitchell snuck in for the score. A fumble killed a first-quarter drive, then quarterback Corny Salvaterra was stopped on a fourth-and-goal just before halftime. Pitt's Ray DiPasquale intercepted a pass to squelch a fourth quarter threat by Tech. In the final moments, Pitt made a furious attempt to tie the game. The Panthers, who were penalized twice on the last drive, were on Tech's 5-yard line when time ran out.

Coach John Michelosen's team had wanted a rematch with Georgia Tech, but the result was the same—a seven-point loss. Pitt outgained Tech by 106 yards, 313-207, but was plagued by turnovers. Georgia Tech converted an early interception into a touchdown and a 7-0 lead. Pitt was stopped on a goal-line stand at the start of the second quarter, and Tech increased its lead late in the quarter with a halfback-option TD pass. Pitt quarterback Corny Salvaterra hit Dick Bowen with a 36-yard scoring pass just before the half, and Pitt trailed, 14-7. Bowen's fumble on the second-half kickoff set up the clinching touchdown. Pitt pulled to within seven on Salvaterra's sneak, but could draw no closer.

A new era in Pitt football was ushered in with the Panthers' first bowl appearance in 17 years. Coach-of-the-Year Johnny Majors had revived a struggling program and Pitt was 6-4-1 entering this game. Freshman Tony Dorsett was a big part of the turnaround, rushing for 1,686 yards. Pitt struck first, with Dorsett scoring two plays after Tom Perko recovered Arizona State quarterback Danny White's fumble on the first play of the game. But the Sun Devils, playing on their own field, proved too tough. Woody Green scored four plays after Dorsett's touchdown to tie the game. Arizona State scored three touchdowns in 6:04 of the fourth quarter, and although Pitt blocked all three extra points, the game ended one-sided after being tied at halftime. Dorsett rushed for 100 yards, but Pitt turned the ball over seven times. Both quarterbacks, White and Pitt's Billy Daniels, threw three interceptions, but White completed 14-of-19 for 269 yards. Daniels was 7-20 for just 57 yards.

A player rushing for 100 yards is impressive. Two players on the same team is remarkable. Three is unheard of, but that is how Pitt knocked off Kansas. Elliott Walker (11 carries for 123 yards, 11.2 average) got the ball rolling with a 60-yard touchdown run in the first quarter. Tony Dorsett (27-142) scored two touchdowns in the second quarter. Pitt had nearly 300 rushing yards at the intermission. Quarterback Robert Haygood ran the veer offense to perfection, rushing for 101 yards (14 carries) when he wasn't busy pitching out to Dorsett. Haygood also connected with Gordon Jones for a touchdown after Walker scored his second of the game. Jones set up his own touchdown with a 63-yard kickoff return. With eight wins, Pitt had its best season since 1963. Dorsett rushed for 1,686 yards on the season, matching his 1973 total.

The many remarkable accomplishments Tony Dorsett achieved in his four years at Pitt were punctuated by his role in this win, one that gave Pitt its first national championship in 39 years. Dorsett, quarterback Matt Cavanaugh and a marauding defense just would not be denied in the first indoor Sugar Bowl game. Cavanaugh, named the game's MVP, scored from six yards out to give Pitt a 7-0 lead. The celebration of that touchdown became a Sports Illustrated cover that can be seen at several sites around Pitt's campus. The photo headline simply read: "PITT IS IT!" Gordon Jones turned a short pass into a 59-yard touchdown excursion in the second quarter. Dorsett's 10-yard score late in the half cemented the victory. He was far from through, however. After gaining 65 yards in the first half, the Heisman Trophy winner exploded in the second to finish with a Sugar Bowl record 202 yards rushing, including 67 on one run that set up one of Carson Long's two second-half field goals. The defense created six turnovers, and limited the Bulldogs to 181 yards. Pitt defenders actually caught more Georgia passes than did Georgia receivers (four interceptions, compared to three completions in 22 attempts). Vince Dooley, Georgia's head coach, said this about the 12-0 Panthers: "They proved today they are the best in the country. They have amazing balance; they are the best defensive team we've seen. I think that is obvious. They are also the best offensive team we've faced." Pitt coach Johnny Majors, who completed his four-year stint at Pitt with a 33-13-1 record (after a combined 13-29 mark in the previous four years) was named Coach-of-the-Year for the second time at Pitt.

Pitt set five Gator Bowl records for offensive proficiency in an astounding demolition of the highly regarded Clemson Tigers. Matt Cavanaugh completed 23-of-36 passes for 387 yards and four touchdowns as Pitt outgained Clemson, 566-268. Three scoring tosses went to fullback Elliott Walker, who joined Tony Dorsett as the second Pitt back ever to rush for 1,000 yards in a season. Gordon Jones scored the other TD on one of his 10 receptions for 163 yards. Cavanaugh threw for 211 yards and two touchdowns in the first half alone. Clemson's vaunted passing combination of Steve Fuller-to-Jerry Butler was rendered ineffective by a Pitt secondary which swooped in for four interceptions, two by senior safety Bob Jury. Cavanaugh, an All-American in 1977, missed part of the season after suffering a broken wrist against Notre Dame in the first game of the year. "I shudder to think what he could have done had he stayed healthy," said Panther Coach Jackie Sherrill, who finished his first year at Pitt with a 9-2-1 mark.

The Panthers saved their worst performance of the season for this bowl outing with North Carolina State. Primarily a running team in 1978, Pitt attempted to open it up on this night, throwing 48 passes. Four were intercepted, however. The Wolfpack, led by star running back Ted Brown, rolled up a 23-3 fourth quarter lead before Pitt quarterback Rick Trocano tried to bring the Panthers back. An 18-play drive featured four fourth-down conversions, the last of which resulted in a Freddie Jacobs touchdown. Pitt moved to State's 34-yard line with five minutes remaining, but an interception settled the issue. Trocano was intercepted twice more before the game ended, but he also led Pitt to the game's final touchdown. "Execution on our part was our biggest problem," Coach Jackie Sherrill said. "We didn't play well...and the turnovers hurt us." Pitt finished 8-4.

Pitt finished the 1979 season with a 10-game winning streak, built in part around the arm of freshman quarterback Dan Marino. The season finale came on Christmas Day, with the Panthers rounding out an 11-1 campaign with a 16-10 win over Arizona. The Wildcats, coached by former Pitt radio commentator Tony Mason, threatened often but did not score a touchdown until the game's waning moments. Junior cornerback Terry White intercepted two passes. One set up the second of three Mark Schubert field goals; the other allowed Pitt to run out the clock. Two of Schubert's kicks were from 46 yards out. Pitt's only touchdown came after a 12-play drive, with Marino hitting Benjie Pryor from 12 yards out. The last three plays of the drive: Marino to Mike Dombrowski for 34 yards, Marino to Ralph Still for 24 yards, and the touchdown.

Pitt's defense wanted this game badly. Its leader for four years, Hugh Green, finished second in the Heisman Trophy voting behind South Carolina's George Rogers. With the chance to avenge that result, Pitt smothered Gamecocks with a swarming defense and an efficient offense. Rick Trocano and Dan Marino split time at quarterback; each threw a touchdown pass and Trocano added a short TD run. Although Rogers gained 113 yards, his two fumbles were more of a factor in the game than his rushing output. Tom Flynn recovered Rogers' fumble on the first play of the game, leading to Trocano's score. Randy McMillan scored two touchdowns as Pitt rolled to a 37-3 lead. The defense was led by Rickey Jackson, who made 19 tackles (14 solos). Pitt finished the season 11-1.

One of the most dramatic finishes in Pitt football history gave Pitt its second Sugar Bowl win over Georgia. Pitt trailed, 20-17, with 42 seconds remaining. It faced a fourth-and-5 at the Bulldog 33. Coach Jackie Sherrill disdained the potential 50-yard field goal attempt. "With five minutes to go I said we were not here to tie, we were here to win," Sherrill said. Dan Marino wanted to throw a short pass to a running back to get the first down, but a Georgia blitz left tight end John Brown in single coverage down the middle. Marino was right on target for the touchdown, his third of the game. The Panther defense limited Herschel Walker to 84 yards on 25 carries.

The Panthers' season came to a dismal end as Pitt lost to Southern Methodist in the Mustangs' own backyard. Dan Marino, in his last game at Pitt, was plagued by dropped passes on the cold, rainy day. He completed 19-of-37 for 181 yards. Fumbles were the story of the first quarter. Joe McCall lost one at the SMU one-yard line, but Mustang QB Lance McIlhenny returned the favor with a fumble at the Pitt seven. Eric Schubert's missed field goal attempt left the game scoreless at the half. Marino completed five straight short passes to set up Schubert's 43-yard kick which gave Pitt its only points. SMU's "Pony Express" backfield (Eric Dickerson and Craig James) led an 80-yard drive, which McIlhenny capped off with a nine-yard run. Pitt's last chance ended when a Marino pass was tipped and intercepted in the end zone.

John Congemi completed a school-record 31 passes for 341 yards, but a late Ohio State touchdown pass spoiled Congemi's, and Pitt's, afternoon. Congemi's second-quarter touchdown pass to tight end Clint Wilson tied the score at 7-7, but the Buckeyes led, 14-7, entering the fourth quarter. Wilson fell on Joe McCall's fumble in the end zone to tie the score early in the fourth quarter. Ohio State's Keith Byars scored his second touchdown by returning the ensuing kickoff 99 yards. Congemi was six-for-six on Pitt's next touchdown drive, which culminated with an 11-yard pass to Dwight Collins. Congemi, who completed 19-of-27 in the second half, had his conversion pass broken up, and Pitt trailed, 21-20. A 17-play drive later in the quarter ended with Snuffy Everett's 37-yard field goal to put the Panthers on top. Quarterback Mike Tomczak led Ohio State back, ending an 89-yard drive with a 39-yard bomb to Thad Jamison, who scored with 39 seconds remaining. Head Coach Foge Fazio's Panthers drove to the Buckeye 24, but could get no further.

Despite late heroics from Larry Wanke, Pitt was grounded in this aerial circus, as Texas quarterback Brett Stafford and split end Tony Jones set Bluebonnet Bowl records. The New Year's Eve crowd was treated to an action-packed game from the start. Stafford connected with Jones for a 77-yard touchdown on the first play from scrimmage. Pitt retaliated quickly: Billy Owens returned the kickoff 45 yards, Billy Osborn hit Reggie Williams for 45 more yards on a trick play; then Craig Heyward tied the score with a four-yard burst. Six plays later, the Longhorns took the lead for good as Stafford hit Jones on a short pass that he broke for a 60-yard touchdown. Stafford finished the first quarter with 202 yards passing on the way to a 368-yard night. Jones set records for receiving yards and longest reception. Wanke replaced Darnell Dickerson early in the third quarter after Dickerson suffered a knee injury. Wanke completed 8-of-20 passes for 172 yards and three touchdowns, including two late in the fourth quarter that cut the Longhorns' lead to five. Heyward rushed for 136 yards, winning his personal battle with Texas star Eric Metcalf, who finished with 95 yards rushing. Heyward ended the season with 1,791 yards, the second-best in Pitt history. Pitt finished the year at 8-4, their most successful season since 1983.

TEXAS A&M	7	3	12	6	—	28
PITTSBURGH	7	10	7	7	—	31

Led by bowl MVP Alex Van Pelt's 354 yards passing, Pitt parlayed a John Hancock Bowl-record 530 yards in offense into a 31-28 come-from-behind victory over Texas A&M. It was a day of firsts for the Panthers. Paul Hackett, named head coach moments before kickoff, won his first game as a head coach. It also was Pitt's first bowl win since the Panthers' 24-20 Sugar Bowl victory over Georgia in 1982. Van Pelt, who completed 20 of 40 passes and threw for two touchdowns, rallied the Panthers from a 28-24 deficit, when he connected with Henry Tuten on a 44-yard touchdown strike with just 2:19 remaining in the game, giving Pitt a 31-28 lead. Tailback Curvin Richards rushed for 156 yards on 23 carries and scored the first points of the game with a 12-yard TD. Texas A&M countered with a nine-yard touchdown run by quarterback Lance Pavlas, tying the score at 7-7 to end the first quarter. With the score tied at 10 late in the first half, Van Pelt threw an eight-yard touchdown pass to Ronald Redmon, giving Pitt a 17-10 halftime lead. Flanker Olanda Truitt completed his freshman season in stellar fashion, catching four passes for 124 yards, including a key 59-yard reception that set up Redmon's score. Carnel Smith finished the game with 10 tackles and Barry Threats had a game-ending interception, which ended Texas A&M's final drive and secured the Panthers' victory. The Hancock Bowl win marked the end of another decade in Pitt football history and the dawn of the Hackett coaching era. The Panthers finished the 1989 season with an 8-3-1 record.

Playing its first postseason game in eight seasons, Pittsburgh fell victim to an opportunistic Southern Mississippi defense and suffered a 41-7 defeat in the 1997 AXA/Equitable Liberty Bowl. It was the Panthers' first-ever appearance in the Liberty Bowl and their first bowl game since a 31-28 victory over Texas A&M in the 1989 John Hancock Bowl. Pittsburgh threatened early, driving to the Golden Eagles' 13 on its initial series, but failed to score any points. Southern Miss responded with a pair of touchdown drives for a 14-0 second-quarter lead. The Panther offense, held in check for most of the game, had its lone shining moment when quarterback Pete Gonzalez connected with Jake Hoffart on an 89-yard pass-and-run touchdown as Pittsburgh trailed 14-7 at halftime. Hoffart, who finished with five catches for 121 yards, set a Liberty Bowl record with his touchdown catch. The Panthers, however, would come no closer. USM's defense returned a fumble and two interceptions for touchdowns in the second half to roll to its first victory ever over Pittsburgh.

Making its second postseason appearance under Walt Harris, Pittsburgh rolled up big offensive numbers but fell in a shootout to Iowa State, 37-29, in the Insight.com Bowl. The Panthers held statistical advantages in total offense (491 yards to 375), passing (347 to 308) and rushing (164 to 107). The Panthers struck on their very first possession of the game when John Turman hit a streaking Antonio Bryant for a 72-yard touchdown and 7-0 lead. The Cyclones, however, responded with 27 unanswered points, including 20 in the second period. Pittsburgh pulled within 27-14 when Rod Rutherford snuck in from two yards out. Bryant then made a brilliant diving catch for a 44-yard touchdown and the Panthers trailed 27-20 with 2:05 left in the third. The Panthers' momentum was slowed when Iowa State's JaMain Billups returned a punt 72 yards for a score early in the fourth. Kevan Barlow, who finished with 114 rushing yards, bulled in from the three to make it 34-29 at the 9:45 mark. But the Panthers could draw no closer. Pittsburgh captured its first bowl victory since 1989 with a 34-19 win over NC State in the Visit Florida Tangerine Bowl. The victory gave the Panthers their strongest close to a season since 1980 by winning their final six games. Hobbled by an ankle injury, Antonio Bryant went on to earn Most Valuable Player honors after catching seven passes for 101 yards and two touchdowns. David Priestley put up MVP-like statistics himself, completing 18-of-32 passes for 271 yards and the two scoring strikes to Bryant. The duo propelled the Panthers to a 24-10 halftime lead. The Pittsburgh defense held strong and limited Wolfpack quarterback Philip Rivers to just 189 yards through the air and sacked him four times. NC State closed to 27-19 in the fourth quarter but blitzing Lewis Moore quelled the threat when he sacked Rivers and forced a fumble. Tyre Young picked it up and ran 16 yards untouched for the clinching TD. Moore, who finished with seven tackles (all solo), including two for losses, was named Pittsburgh's Defensive MVP.

Shawn Robinson's 66-yard punt return for a touchdown sparked Pitt's victory over Oregon State in the 2002 Insight Bowl.

Pittsburgh achieved its finest season in two decades with a 38-13 triumph over Oregon State in the Insight Bowl. The Panthers finished 9-4, their winningest season since 1982, and secured a spot in the final national polls for the first time since 1989. The win marked the Panthers' second consecutive postseason victory. A stifling defensive effort, efficient offense as well as a special teams gem keyed the result. Tied at 10 at halftime, OSU quarterback Derek Anderson was intercepted by Tez Morris, who returned the ball 36 yards to the Beavers' 23 early in the third quarter. Rod Rutherford completed a 22-yard pass to Larry Fitzgerald to the one before rushing up the middle for a 17-10 lead just three minutes into the second half. The Panthers broke open the contest later in the third when Shawn Robinson fielded a punt at the Panthers' 34, ran wide to the right and sprinted down the sideline for a 66-yard touchdown. It was the first punt return for a TD in Pittsburgh's bowl history. Pittsburgh iced the game with a 44-yard touchdown drive climaxed by Brandon Miree's seven-yard burst. Miree, who earned the game's Offensive MVP honor, finished with 113 yards rushing on 20 carries (5.7 avg.). In contrast, OSU tailback Steven Jackson — who entered the game as the nation's fifth-leading rusher — was held to a season-low 34 yards.

A skillful and methodical opening drive that moved 69 yards to the Virginia one-yard line ultimately failed to produce any points, setting the tone in Pittsburgh's 23-16 loss in the Continental Tire Bowl. Virginia scored the game's first touchdown four plays later and went on to win its second consecutive Continental Tire Bowl. Missed opportunities were the theme for Pitt, which finished 8-5 for the season, with a missed extra point, missed field goal, an interception and a lost fumble on a potential game-tying drive. Heisman Trophy runner-up Larry Fitzgerald saw his NCAA record touchdown streak end at 18 games, but the All-American still led the Panthers with five catches for 77 yards. Brandon Miree rushed for 110 yards and added four receptions, including one for a 17-yard touchdown. The scoring pass from Rod Rutherford was his 37th of the season, tying Dan Marino's school record set in 1981.

Making its first appearance in the Fiesta Bowl since the 1983 season, Pitt fell victim to a lethal Utah passing game and equally potent pass rush in a 35-7 defeat. Tyler Palko was sacked a Fiesta Bowl-record nine times and the Panthers' offense was grounded most of the evening. The Utes finished the 2004 season with a 12-0 record and ranked as high as fourth in the final polls. Pitt finished with an 8-4 mark and ranked No. 25. Utah scored touchdowns on five of its first seven possessions, including all three in the third quarter. Pitt advanced into Utah territory three times in the first half but four sacks and a blocked field goal kept the Panthers off the scoreboard. The Panthers' lone score came on a beautiful over-the-shoulder grab by Greg Lee that went for a 31-yard touchdown with 4:28 left in the third quarter. Lee had seven receptions for 93 yards, while fellow wideout Joe DeSardo had nine catches for 109 yards.

Making its first bowl appearance since the 2004 season, Pitt failed to take advantage of a masterful defensive performance, falling to Oregon State, 3-0, in the Sun Bowl. The Panthers (9-4) held the Beavers to 273 yards and forced three turnovers. Unfortunately Pitt's offense was also bottled up, managing only 178 yards and never penetrating Oregon State's 36-yard line. The Panthers appeared poised to pull out another fourth-quarter comeback when T.J. Porter returned a punt 36 yards to the OSU 42 with 12:39 left in the game. A sack and forced fumble by the Beavers' Victor Butler, however, ended the threat. Pitt's final scoring opportunity came with 2:02 remaining when Conor Lee attempted a 57-yard field goal, but the kick fell just short of the crossbar. Linebackers Scott McKillop and Austin Ransom led Pitt with 11 tackles each. McKillop also had an interception in the end zone to end the first half. Greg Romeus was named the Jimmy Rogers Jr. Most Valuable Lineman after collecting four tackles and two sacks. Oregon State (9-4) placekicker Justin Kahut accounted for the lone points of the day on a 44-yard field goal with 2:18 left in the second quarter. It was the lowest scoring bowl game since 1959, a 0-0 tie between Air Force and TCU in the Cotton Bowl.

Dan Hutchins kicked four field goals, including a 33-yarder with 52 seconds left, to lift Pitt past North Carolina in the Meineke Car Care Bowl. The victory climaxed a 10-3 season for the Panthers, their winningest campaign since 1981. Freshman running back Dion Lewis was named the bowl's MVP after rushing for 159 yards and a touchdown against the nation's No. 6 overall defense. Lewis finished his spectacular debut season with a Pitt freshman-record 1,799 yards, surpassing Tony Dorsett's 1973 frosh total (1,686). Hutchins set Pitt records for single-season field goals (23) and kick scoring (115). His four field goals also set a Meineke Car Care Bowl record. Linebacker Max Gruder had a game-high 11 tackles, while defensive tackle Mick Williams had two sacks. Freshman linebacker Dan Mason, making a surprise start, had a key interception on the goal line late in the first half. As a unit, the Pitt defense limited the Tar Heels to just 264 total yards, including a mere 81 on the ground. It was Pitt's first postseason victory since the 2002 Insight Bowl. The win clinched a final national ranking of No. 15 in both polls for Pitt, its highest since 1982. The Tar Heels finished 8-5.

KENTUCKY	3	0	7	0	—	10

Pitt utilized a punishing running game and forced two Kentucky punting miscues to defeat the Wildcats, 27-10, in the BBVA Compass Bowl played at historic Legion Field in Birmingham, Ala. Andrew Taglianetti blocked a punt to set up Pitt's first touchdown late in the second quarter, giving the Panthers a 13-3 lead. Pitt then forced an incomplete pass on a Kentucky fake punt early in the third, setting up Tino Sunseri's 13-yard TD pass to Brock DeCicco that made it 20-3. The Wildcats countered with their only touchdown, a one-yard run by Moncell Allen later in the period that cut the deficit to 10. But the Panthers answered with a long drive that was capped by a two-yard touchdown run by Dion Lewis to seal the result. Lewis rushed for 105 yards and a TD to earn his second consecutive bowl MVP award. Defensively the Panthers held Kentucky well below its average of 33 points per game. Defensive backs Dom DeCicco and K'Waun Williams had nine tackles each. Pitt, playing the game under acting head coach Phil Bennett, finished 8-5, while the Wildcats fell to 6-7.

The following list was compiled from various sources during the summer of 1981, and has been updated and corrected annually since then. Although all cautions were taken to avoid errors, we do realize that names were most likely omitted due to the immensity of the task. If you have additions, or find errors in the list, please contact the Media Relations Office. Active players are in bold.

* In the 1960s, the AFL established the same draft format as the NFL by drafting in an inverse order of finish. Each league had its own draft, allowing for athletes to be drafted by the AFL and the NFL.

** Jack Durishan was drafted in 1943 by Pittsburgh. He served in the armed forces and after returning was drafted again in 1947 by the New York Yankees.

*** Steve Jastrzembski was drafted by Boston (AFL) in 1962 and Baltimore (NFL) in 1961.

Andy Lee is annually one of the NFL's top punters.

A four-year starter at Pitt, Mike McGlynn was Philadelphia's starting center in 2010.

THIS IS PITT

PITT

Founded in 1787 as a small, private school, the Pittsburgh Academy was located in a log cabin near Pittsburgh's three rivers. In the nearly 225 years since, the University has evolved into an internationally recognized center of learning and research.

Medical breakthroughs, amazing discoveries and brilliant victories dapple its long history. Pitt has been making the world healthier, safer and more tolerant.

Private through much of its history, Pitt became a state-related university in 1966. Today, the University of Pittsburgh system comprises the 132-acre Pittsburgh campus and regional campuses in Bradford, Greensburg, Johnstown and Titusville.

The University's 12,000 employees, including 3,800 full-time faculty members, serve about 34,000 students through the programs of 15 undergraduate, graduate and professional schools.

The Cathedral of Learning (pictured left), a historic landmark, is the second-tallest education building in the world — 42 stories and 535 feet tall. It is also the geographic and traditional heart of the campus.

Begun by Chancellor John Bowman in 1926 and dedicated in 1937, the building was realized with the help of contributions from men, women and children throughout the region and the world. It now stands as a prominent symbol of the University of Pittsburgh's proud and historic past, as well as the endless possibilities that the future provides.

UNDER CHANCELLOR
LEADERSHIP,
THE UNIVERSITY
HAS ACHIEVED
NEW LEVELS OF
QUALITY AND
IMPACT ON
EVERY FRONT.

The past academic year was Mark Nordenberg's 16th year of service as Chancellor of the University of Pittsburgh. Under Chancellor Nordenberg's leadership, the University has achieved new levels of quality and impact on virtually every front. Undergraduate applications have increased dramatically, and the academic credentials of enrolled undergraduates have soared. Pitt currently ranks fifth nationally in terms of grants competitively awarded to faculty members by the National Institutes of Health. Pitt now attracts nearly $800 million annually in support for research projects. Using standard national conventions, that $800 million in research spending supports, directly and indirectly, more than 28,000 local jobs.

Over the course of his years in office, Chancellor Nordenberg has received many forms of professional recognition for his own accomplishments. Among other honors, he has been named Pittsburgh's Person of the Year by both Vector's Pittsburgh and Pittsburgh magazine. Even more recently, he was named a History Maker by the Senator John Heinz History Center, was awarded the Homer S. Brown Law Association's Spirit Award, received the Presidential Leadership Award from six national foundations and professional organizations for his efforts to promote a vibrant intellectual and social campus climate that de-emphasizes alcohol, and was honored by the Community College of Allegheny County as a 2011 Legend in Leadership.

To celebrate the remarkable progress achieved during his first decade as Chancellor, University trustees, alumni leaders and special friends contributed $2.5 million to endow a faculty chair in his name. At the time of that announcement, the late Chief Justice Ralph J. Cappy, then the Chair of the University's Board of Trustees, stated: "This endowed chair indicates the extraordinary esteem in which we hold Mark Nordenberg, not only as an individual and a leader who has brought the University to an unprecedented level of success and achievement but also as a true academic at heart. And for a person who is a true academic, the highest honor one can bestow is to endow a faculty chair in his or her name in perpetuity."

Chancellor Nordenberg joined the faculty of Pitt's School of Law in 1977 and quickly built a reputation as an outstanding teacher. He was the initial recipient of the Excellence in Teaching Award now presented annually by the School's graduating class. He also was one of the first faculty members to receive the Chancellor's Distinguished Teaching Award, recognizing teaching excellence university-wide. His area of academic specialty is civil litigation, and he has served as a member of both the U.S. Supreme Court's Advisory Committee on Civil Rules and the Pennsylvania Supreme Court's Civil Procedural Rules Committee.

Earlier in his career, Chancellor Nordenberg served as Dean of the School of Law and Interim Provost of the University. In 1994, he was elevated to the special faculty rank of Distinguished Service Professor. In 1995, he was elected Interim Chancellor by the University's Board of Trustees, and in 1996, following a national search, he was elected Chancellor.

Chancellor Nordenberg has long been an active contributor to the broader community, leading efforts focused on such key issues as the proposed consolidation of city and county governments, the challenges facing the state's urban schools, the work force development needs of the region, and issues of governance in the city's public schools. He served as the founding chair or co-chair of such technology-driven economic development initiatives as the Pittsburgh Digital Greenhouse, the Pittsburgh Life Sciences Greenhouse, the Robotics Foundry, and the Technology Collaborative. He is a past Chair of both the Pennsylvania Association of Colleges and Universities and the Pittsburgh Council on Higher Education. He also is a member of the board and executive committee of the Allegheny Conference on Community Development and a Director of Bank of New York Mellon.

Chancellor Nordenberg is a strong supporter of Pitt athletics. He is a past Chair of the Big East Conference and currently serves on its executive committee. He is a past member of the NCAA's board of directors and its executive committee. He also serves as the Big East representative to the Presidential Oversight Committee of the Bowl Championship Series.

CHANCELLOR NORDENBERG RECOGNIZES THAT A VIBRANT ATHLETIC PROGRAM NOT ONLY SERVES AS A UNIFYING FORCE WITHIN THE UNIVERSITY BUT PROVIDES A CRITICAL LINK TO THE BROADER COMMUNITY.

Chancellor Nordenberg has long recognized that a vibrant athletic program not only serves as a unifying force within the University but provides a critical link to the broader community. He also recognizes that success in competition is just one measure of a program's worth. Pitt student-athletes also are a source of pride because of the way that they represent our University, contribute to the broader community, and achieve academically. During the last year, 160 Pitt student-athletes earned a grade-point-average between 3.0 and 3.49; 130 earned GPA's between 3.5 and 3.99; and 25 student-athletes achieved a perfect 4.0 grade-point average.

Born in Duluth, Minnesota, Chancellor Nordenberg first moved to this region as a high school senior, when his father was transferred to Pittsburgh by U. S. Steel.

He is an honors graduate of North Allegheny High School, Thiel College and the University of Wisconsin Law School. He has been married for more than 40 years to Nikki Pirillo Nordenberg, who earned her Ph.D. at Pitt. The Nordenbergs have three adult children – Erin, Carl and Michael – each of whom is a graduate of the University's Falk Laboratory School. Erin also earned a graduate degree from Pitt's School of Information Sciences. This spring, the Nordenbergs welcomed three grandchildren into the family – Julian, son of Carl and Diya, and Finnian and Leo, twin sons of Erin and Tucker.

The role of the 21st century athletic director is increasingly being viewed in business terms. Once seen as educational extensions of the larger institution, athletic departments these days are considered by some to be separate corporate entities.

While Steve Pederson certainly understands his CEO responsibilities in this age of collegiate athletics, he works diligently to ensure the Pitt athletic department remains a direct reflection of the University of Pittsburgh and its guiding values of education, commitment and mentoring.

"We will work hard to win," Pederson likes to say. "But we will work harder to win the right way. We want Pitt Athletics to reflect the very best attributes of this great university and its educational mission."

In speaking to Pitt's graduating senior student-athletes this past spring, Pederson said, "When you come to a great university like Pitt and earn your degree, the world is open to whatever you want to achieve next."

"In athletics, you learn quickly that nothing is handed to you – you earn everything you get. That will serve you well in life. That will separate you from the rest – the drive that it takes to achieve at the highest level."

The key to accomplishment, Pederson believes, is aspiration – the Panthers will work hard and aim high in every endeavor. That philosophy resonates with each Pitt student-athlete and staffer, and is the driving spirit behind his department mantra of "Only Big Dreams."

Using those values as a foundation, the Pitt Athletic Department under Pederson's watch continues to thrive and grow. His ability to galvanize people and programs prompted Pitt chancellor Mark Nordenberg to say, "In my judgment, and this assessment is shared by countless others, Steve Pederson is one of this country's most talented and accomplished athletic directors."

By any measure – be it victories on the field of play, student-athlete graduation rates or rising attendance figures – the Panthers are enjoying a highly accomplished era.

The past academic year provided much excitement and achievement for Pitt Athletics. Men's basketball added to its trophy case by winning the Big East Conference championship and earning a No. 4 ranking in the final Associated Press poll. The Panthers advanced to their 10th consecutive NCAA Basketball Tournament, the longest active streak in the rugged Big East. The wrestling team also raised championship banners, winning the Eastern Wrestling League dual and tournament titles. Moreover, the football team earned its eighth bowl berth since 2000, the softball team won a record 34 games while baseball won 30-plus games for the third consecutive year.

Individually, Pitt student-athletes earned All-America and Academic All-America honors, while continuing to graduate and achieve in the classroom at unprecedented levels. An impressive 290 student-athletes earned grade-point averages of 3.0 or above this past year, including 25 who achieved perfect 4.0 GPAs.

Each of Pitt's 19 intercollegiate athletic programs met or surpassed the NCAA's Academic Progress Rate (APR) standards. Two Pitt teams, men's basketball and gymnastics, received special recognition for ranking among the top 10% in their sport among Division I programs.

And Pitt student-athletes again made their presence felt in the community, contributing more than 2,600 hours of charitable work for various organizations around Western Pennsylvania in 2010-11.

While Pitt student-athletes were achieving on the field and in the classroom, Pederson continued to orchestrate important initiatives from an administrative standpoint, including:

- The opening of the sparkling new Petersen Sports Complex, a state-of-the-art home for Pitt's baseball, softball and men's and women's soccer teams. Built on 12 acres at the peak of upper campus, the facility not only gives Pitt student-athletes nationally competitive facilities, but it also has rejuvenated a previously untapped area of land that neighbors the university.

- A record $7.6 million raised in donations to the Panther Club annual fund, which subsidizes scholarships for Pitt student-athletes. The record total was achieved despite the recently challenging economic times that all supporters of collegiate athletics face.
- The hiring of new football coach Todd Graham. One of the rising stars in the collegiate coaching ranks while building a perennial contender at the University of Tulsa, Graham has the Panther Nation excited about his "high-octane" style of football. "When you consider a new job, you have to make sure the situation is the right fit," Graham said. "Upon meeting Steve Pederson, it was obvious that the University of Pittsburgh would absolutely be the right fit. I'm incredibly excited about the future of not only Pitt football but our athletic department as a whole."
- A new media partnership with CBS Radio Pittsburgh, providing Pitt football and basketball with a 50,000-watt flagship home in Sportsradio 93.7 "The Fan." Women's basketball also has a new radio home in 1320 WJAS-AM, which provides live play-by-play action of each regular-season and postseason game, marking the first time the women's program has enjoyed such coverage.
- An athletics apparel partnership with NIKE, making the Panthers one of the finest outfitted programs in the country. Each of the Panthers' 19 intercollegiate sports teams wear NIKE footwear, uniforms, practice gear and equipment. The long-term agreement outfits more than 450 student-athletes at Pitt.
- Rapidly rising attendance figures. Men's basketball once again enjoyed a strong homecourt advantage with the 12,508-seat Petersen Events Center soldout for a ninth consecutive year, while attendance for Pitt football at Heinz Field has jumped nearly 60% over the past three years.

This success – on the field, in the classroom and various other areas – comes as no surprise to those familiar with Pederson's track record. His return to Pitt in November 2007 gave the Pitt Athletic Department an instant shot of adrenaline that continues to be felt, and built upon, four years later.

His initial Pitt tenure, from 1996-2002, was characterized by a dramatic revitalization of the Panthers' fortunes, building the foundation for the success the Pitt Athletic Department enjoys today.

During his first Pitt tenure, Pederson hired six Big East Conference Coach-of-the-Year honorees (football, men's and women's basketball, baseball, track and field and volleyball), an unprecedented achievement by a Big East athletic director.

In 1999 he charged an unknown coach from Northern Arizona University with the task of resurrecting the Panthers' struggling men's basketball program. That coach, Ben Howland, would build Pitt into a Big East power and was named the consensus National Coach of the Year in 2002.

Pitt, which had not been to the NCAA Tournament in nine years, advanced to the "Sweet 16" in 2002 after posting a school-record 29 victories. The following season, Pitt would reach No. 2 in the polls, capture its first Big East Tournament championship and again advance to the NCAA regional semifinals. Since that time, Pitt basketball has become one of the nation's most consistent winners.

Pitt basketball coach Jamie Dixon, a three-time National Coach of the Year, recalled how instrumental Pederson was in helping to lure him to Pittsburgh to serve with Howland a decade ago. "Steve was the person who originally convinced me to come to the University of Pittsburgh back in 1999," said Dixon, who enters his ninth year as Pitt's head coach and 13th overall.

"Steve is not only a tremendous professional but also a valued friend," Dixon said. "I rely on him heavily for advice and direction. Our athletic department is incredibly fortunate to have his leadership, passion and vision."

Pitt football also was renewed under Pederson's watch. Upon his arrival, the Panthers were coming off seven consecutive seasons without a bowl. By the end of his tenure, Pitt earned four bowl berths in six years, including back-to-back postseason wins in 2001 and 2002.

One of the stars of that 2002 team was receiver Larry Fitzgerald, who would become a unanimous All-American and now is an All-Pro performer for the Arizona Cardinals. "When I decided to go to Pitt, it was for many reasons — a great school, a great football tradition and great people," Fitzgerald said. "Steve Pederson was one of those great people who made me feel like Pitt was the place for me."

While Pederson was instrumental in helping to revive Pitt football's present, he was very attentive to honoring the program's historic past. One of his first major steps as athletic director was to retire the jerseys of all-time Pitt greats Mike Ditka, Marshall Goldberg and Joe Schmidt. Pederson later initiated the Pitt jersey retirement of Mark May, the Panthers' lone Outland Trophy winner.

Pitt enjoyed tremendous achievements in attendance under Pederson. In NCAA Division I men's basketball, Pitt ranked among the nation's top five schools in attendance increase for two consecutive years (2001-02 and 2002-03). The 2002-03 basketball season — the inaugural campaign in the 12,508-seat Petersen Events Center — was sold out. Capitalizing on the exciting and unanticipated success of the 2001-02 basketball team, Pitt held a highly successful "select your seat" campaign for prospective season-ticket holders that simultaneously achieved customer satisfaction as well as enhanced fundraising.

In football, Pederson formed a marketing and ticket pricing plan that resulted in record attendance for the 2003 season. Season tickets were soldout for the '03 campaign as the Panthers averaged an all-time record 59,197 fans for their home season, surpassing the previous mark of 54,818 set in 1982.

Pederson's tenure has witnessed a major strengthening of Pitt's athletic infrastructure. With Chancellor Nordenberg, he helped shape the vision of the Petersen Events Center, the state-of-the-art convocation center that dramatically revolutionized Pitt's campus upon its opening in 2002. The Events Center is widely considered one of the finest college basketball venues in the country and has also been a major asset for student life, providing outstanding recreational facilities and a fitting place for graduation ceremonies.

Pederson was at the forefront of the football program's move into the UPMC Sports Performance Complex, which included the forging of a unique relationship between UPMC, a professional sports franchise and college athletic program. He personally oversaw the design and layout of the Panthers' Duratz Athletic Complex, which houses Pitt's football offices and training areas, and has been described as the finest facility for a college football program in the country.

Pitt football gained a new state-of-the-art home stadium in Heinz Field under Pederson's watch in 2001. The Panthers gained a prominent presence at the new stadium with their logos on the seating, gates and signage. Pederson additionally initiated the renaming of Martindale Street to "Tony Dorsett Drive" to further enhance Pitt's identity on the North Shore.

During his five years at Nebraska (2002-07), Pederson was also at the forefront of significant facilities construction, including a $51 million expansion to Memorial Stadium. The project resulted in new football facilities as well as new strength, sports medicine and indoor facilities for baseball, softball, soccer and sand volleyball. Additionally, the women's volleyball, gymnastics and rifle teams received a new office complex. Athletics fundraising doubled over his final four years, going from $9 million annually in 2003 to $16 million his final year.

Nebraska achieved at exceptional levels athletically and academically during his tenure. In 2006-07, the Cornhuskers won the national championship in women's volleyball, while the football team won the 2006 Big 12 North title and advanced to its first New Year's Day bowl game since 2001. Overall, 15 Nebraska teams earned NCAA invitations. Academically, Nebraska earned a school-record 94% graduation rate, the highest in the Big 12 as Cornhusker student-athletes achieved a combined 3.0 grade-point average during the 2007 spring semester.

In addition to his duties as athletic director at Pitt, Pederson serves on the board for the Crohn's & Colitis Foundation in Pittsburgh. He is also a community leader for the American Heart Association's Heart Walk.

He and his wife Tami have three children: Mark, Kari and Kristin. Mark is married to the former Brooke Gillette.

HEINZ KETCHUP

Bottles Facts: The bottles are exact replicas — down to the embossed “57” on the bottle’s neck — of the Heinz Ketchup 14-ounce glass bottle. Each bottle includes 8,000 pounds of fiberglass, 375 feet of neon tubing and 20,500 light-emitting diodes (LEDs). Each Heinz Ketchup Bottle measures 35 feet by 9 feet and each weighs 8,000 pounds, both totaling 16,000 pounds, the equivalent of 53 300-pound linemen. If the Heinz Ketchup bottles were filled with Heinz Ketchup, they would contain 1,664,000 fluid ounces each. That is enough to give each person seated at Heinz Field at least one 14-ounce bottle of ketchup to take home. If both bottles were emptied, the entire football field would be covered in  $\frac{3}{4}$  of an inch of ketchup. Approximately 4,500 footballs could fit into each scoreboard ketchup bottle.

Freddie Fu, M.D., has been the head team physician and orthopaedic surgeon for the Pitt athletic department since 1986, and the David Silver Professor and chairman of the Department of Orthopaedic Surgery at the Pitt School of Medicine since 1997.

Dr. Fu is known worldwide for his pioneering surgical techniques to treat sports-related injuries to the knee and shoulder and for his extensive scientific and clinical research in the biomechanics of such injuries. He is lauded especially for his scientific research and clinical expertise in treating the commonly injured anterior cruciate ligament (ACL), the main stabilizing ligament of the knee. Because of his reputation, Dr. Fu attracts both athletic and non-athletic patients from all over the globe, and is frequently sought after as an expert by top national and international media covering sports, medicine and science.

Dr. Fu sees patients in his office at the UPMC Center for Sports Medicine, one of the world's largest, most comprehensive facilities of its kind, located within the UPMC Sports Performance Complex. Partly designed by Dr. Fu, the complex also houses the indoor and outdoor training facilities of the Pitt Panthers and the Pittsburgh Steelers.

DR. CHRISTOPHER HARNER

Christopher Harner, M.D., co-head team physician and orthopaedic surgeon for the Pitt Panthers football team, is the Blue Cross of Western Pennsylvania Professor of orthopaedic surgery at the Pitt School of Medicine. He's also chief of the division of sports medicine at UPMC, medical director and director of education at the UPMC Center for Sports Medicine, where he also sees athletic and non-athletic patients in his office.

Dr. Harner specializes in the clinical research and surgical treatment of sports-related injuries, especially those to the knee ligaments and cartilage. He was among the first surgeons in the country to perform knee meniscus transplants in the early 1990s. (The meniscus is the crescent-shaped cushion inside the knee joint commonly damaged along with ligament injuries.) Dr. Harner's extensive clinical, scientific and academic leadership has been recognized through numerous international awards and grants.

DR. ROBIN WEST

Robin West, M.D., is a UPMC orthopaedic surgeon and associate team physician for the Pitt Panthers football team. One of few women in her field, Dr. West is associate professor of orthopaedic surgery at the Pitt School of Medicine. She also is the head team physician for the Pitt men's basketball team, a consultant to the medical team for the Pittsburgh Steelers and a member of the NFL Team Physicians Society. A specialist in treating all types of musculoskeletal athletic injuries, Dr. West is especially interested in researching the biomechanics of knee ligament injuries, aimed at improving prevention and treatment methods. Dr. West sees athletic patients in her offices at the UPMC Center for Sports Medicine and UPMC South Hills in Bethel Park.

UPMC SPORTS MEDICINE

More than 500 University of Pittsburgh student-athletes receive medical care provided by UPMC Sports Medicine's athletic training program.

The University of Pittsburgh School of Health and Rehabilitation Sciences has a proud tradition of athletic training education. The undergraduate program is accredited by the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA). Pittsburgh also provides graduate education at the master's and doctoral level.

Established in 1975, the athletic training program prepares students for a career in the multidisciplinary field of sports medicine. Upon completion of the athletic training education program, the student is eligible for the NATA administered certification examination.

Pittsburgh athletes receive treatment in two athletic training rooms. Each sport has a full-time certified athletic trainer or certified graduate assistant and student athletic trainers assigned to provide medical coverage during all practices and games. The staff is dedicated to providing all aspects of prevention, evaluation, management and rehabilitation of injuries and illnesses.

The sports medicine staff also runs a sports medicine office at the UPMC Sports Performance Complex for all athletes to be evaluated by one of the sports medicine physicians. The South Side structure, which includes the UPMC Center for Sports Medicine, an indoor practice facility, and four grass practice fields, combines the resources of a major academic and clinical system with professional and collegiate sport team programs. This office provides the athletes with an opportunity to be seen by specialists as well as providing the student athletic trainer with an outstanding learning environment.

The UPMC Sports Medicine clinic for Pitt athletes is led by Dr. Freddie Fu, Pitt head team physician, and Dr. Christopher Harner, co-head team physician. Other clinic physicians are: associate team physicians Drs. Robin West, Mark Rodosky, Jeanne Doperak, Aaron Mares, Volker Musahl and sports medicine fellow Dr. Chealon Miller.

The world-renowned UPMC Sports Medicine Concussion Program is also available to Pitt athletes. The program is led by neuropsychologist Michael Collins.

In addition, a comprehensive staff of consulting specialists from throughout UPMC are part of the sports medicine team caring for all Pitt athletes.
